

Suzanne Armstrong: Desatanization of Biography

M. R. Pinheiro
(Twins of God)¹

Abstract: The criminal case involving Suzanne Armstrong and Susan Bartlett—reported to be a white American native natural woman, in Suzanne’s case, and a white Australian native natural woman, in Susan’s—engraved itself on humanity’s psyche as something heinous. A single man is said to have stabbed both, killing them, to have had sex with one of them after ‘her’ soul left her biological body, and to have left a baby to starve to death in the house they shared, before taking off with the bloodied knife in his hands, discarding it only upon reaching the vicinity of the train station. This man is said to have dated the female figure whose dead and bloodied body he brutally raped, though they had split before the incident. Here, we prove that events did not unfold exactly that way. We present the actual narrative of the facts surrounding those murders. Our knowledge is based on several sources, but primarily on the reports of the satanic brotherhood member known to us as Nelson Ricci Pinheiro, our Al Qaeda brother and second-in-command of Al Qaeda (who ‘Osama’ calls son), and on the reports of the satanic sisterhood member known to us as Lea Ricci Pinheiro, our Al Qaeda sister and top commander of the satanic sisterhood. As a side thing, we acknowledge the passing of Roberto Carlos via murder by the satanic brotherhood before the cover of his first LP was made in 1959 as well as the passing of Malcolm-X’s IDs righteous owners (who should all be white, therefore Christian) via murder by the satanic brotherhood and the ID Malcolm-X as being an umbrella ID for the satanic brotherhood, talk about the drugs line of attack of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, the formation of the satanic spirit (how a person starts connecting to hells), provide another marker of satanic brotherhood/sisterhood colonization, acknowledge the group of human beings killed by Rome under the tag Christians when of the fires as having been all members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood instead, provide one more proof (using Allah and EL) that both the bible humanity calls Christian and the bible humanity calls Islamic were written by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood and determine the most likely African location that is considered the origin of the members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. We still acknowledge the passing of Augusto Pinochet by murder perpetrated by the satanic brotherhood and put a date to his death: somewhere before the first talks about the coup. We also acknowledge the passing of John Grant by murder of the satanic brotherhood followed by replacement on the same day that Suzanne Margaret Armstrong and Susan Bartlett were murdered and at the same house. We also acknowledge the passing of Neil Armstrong by murder of the satanic brotherhood soon after his landing in 1969 and the falsification of online body images for his ID even when the date on the image is anterior to the Apollo 11 departure from earth. We also acknowledge the passing of Tadea Benz via murder perpetrated by the satanic sisterhood sometime after she made her vows (99%) and before her ID was seen associated with the feminine body image that got raped and murdered at the convent room. We then also acknowledge this ID, Tadea Benz, as a satanic sisterhood experience. We also acknowledge the passing via murder perpetrated by the satanic brotherhood of Johnny Frank Garret a time that is anterior to the fingerprints of the ID appearing on the bed frame of ‘Tadea Benz’.

I. Introduction

Suzanne Margaret Armstrong was born on November 18, 1965, in Manhattan, New York City, New York, USA, according to Co-pilot. Susan Jan Bartlett was born in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, in 1948, according to Co-pilot. Suzanne was stabbed 27 times, and Susan was stabbed 55 times (Co-pilot). Suzanne Margaret Armstrong’s baby was 16 months old when that happened, in January of 1977 (Co-pilot). According to all sources we have consulted, the baby was found alive. Co-pilot: ‘Gregory Armstrong spent three days alone in the house after his mother, Suzanne Armstrong, was murdered. His cries eventually alerted neighbors, who entered the home and found him dehydrated but unharmed in his cot.'

The father of the baby is told to be a man from Naxos, Greece, yet his identity remains unknown (Co-pilot). The reasons for Suzanne to split from her husband are unknown, according to sources, including Co-pilot. 'Suzanne Armstrong and Susan Bartlett were old high school friends from Benalla, Victoria. They had moved to Melbourne and decided to rent a house together on Easey Street, Collingwood, just months before their deaths' (Co-pilot).

The fact that not even the basic data about the people involved is present (name of the father of the baby, who would have to be informed about what happened to his ex-wife, if nothing else) points at satanic brotherhood/sisterhood investigations instead of Christian ones, so that we know, for sure, already here, that all the people involved in the investigations were usurpers [36], so not righteous owners of Australian native IDs. That would have to include managers, as many as those that are supposed to oversee what the investigators do. Yet there is more, such as the fact that the sperm of the man who raped Suzanne was never collected, when that is basic in Christian forensics [1]: it was present in the crime scene and the police never cared about collecting it. We then know that, for sure, all those involved in that crime scene examination, forensics included, were satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members or non-righteous owners of Australian native IDs.

Crimes of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood involve destruction of any possible actual information (the so-called misinformation campaign) and scholarly guidance (what they probably call regression in civilization levels or de-civilization, which is a process that is run in order to accommodate society to the existence of the 'preto velho', who they see as one in three figures that form the nature of the African negro man (Attachment no. 7). In that direction, they are simply making society not have anyone who is not their 'preto velhos' leading science. Since they think they will become the king of wisdom - satanic ways - then they must be able to reach a time in which their declarations will be true for real and, while that doesn't happen, they make adjustments in order for society to still 'be with them'. The main problem is that they see Our Lord Jesus Christ as a pitiful figure and they blame that on him not having developed his 'exu' side, like, if he had that side, then he would have counter-attacked the satanic back then, around year 0, what would have made him still be alive, despite reaching his 33 years of age, and show them that Our God is more than the satanic exu/Christian devil. Perhaps the worst problem of all is that they don't really accept or understand that Our God and Our Jesus came only for those white people who they determined would be their people, not really for them, so that they were never committed to create an impression on them and they certainly created an impression on the people they targeted, as said and proven. It is only now, once more, that Our Lord Jesus has targeted the entire humankind, this after running elaborated plot to get us to this point, in which all will be changed into grace for those who were always with heavens, were therefore, in negro satanic man's language, faithful to them).

Because of all that, the satanic obviously destroyed the biography of Suzanne's husband: he was never from Greece. All Christians would always marry the most similar people to themselves, since that also has to do with spiritual levels and all whites know that, instinctively, through the Holy Ghost, before us and now, through us, as appropriated/conscious wisdom. In very rare situations it could be possible, but that is all. They satanized the biography of the husband for some reason: we theorize he never got a replacement, so that perhaps his biology was too exotic or they couldn't get his documents, say he was killed in the sea and the documents were together with him or something.

In this paper, we examine some of the details surrounding these crimes, then present the actual facts of the matter. Our sources include members of the so-called satanic brotherhood and sisterhood, online videos, and our own processes of placid contemplation of the facts and the beings around us together with our interactions with a few people who were part of the plots of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood but are not its members.

Development

[76]: Leinha talked to us about this one. After we come up with our guesses, the satanic usually allow us a glimpse of memory, enabling us to reach even more certain conclusions. This happened all the way through during the analysis of these crimes, so please assume that, when we say something here, the satanic confirmed that something in a 'head way'.

'Barry Woodard' would have been the 'man' the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood wanted to blame for this one (they are framing this ID in this attack therefore), so that they let his ID figure as the most likely to be blamed if compliance goes for the 'known'/officially recorded facts. It is interesting to notice that there was indeed a satanic brotherhood member playing that role, of 'Barry Woodard', and that satanic brotherhood member is the one who would have gone through all those moves, including the split from 'Suzanne', which is why we can say the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood wanted to frame 'him' as well, like we could have said 'it wanted to frame this ID' all the time instead.

'Suzanne' had split from 'him' - so that she didn't want him anymore - which is the reason as to why 'he' has sex with 'her' after death, like 'in this way I can' sort of thing'. We must notice, though, that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood put the 'script' of this routine together also with 'our' 'help', so that everything might be invented, when 'actors'/usurpers are put there just to make it more real, as in a play or in a movie. In this case, it is possible even that the satanic brotherhood member playing 'Barry' was never in contact with 'Suzanne' while her biological body was alive. He could have recorded those messages for the satanic brotherhood in advance, like they have their methods. 'Nelson' consulted us as to the possible causes for such a crime, when we came up with the split. In that case, it looks very likely that the framed satanic brotherhood member never even went close to her body while she was alive.

They are right in saying they suspect that 'Susan' was killed because 'she' tried to intervene, as for wishes of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood in terms of stories told. Yet, because they are right, we know those investigating these crimes were all part of the same satanic brotherhood/sisterhood: a forensics specialist would have instead provided technical information, such as 'the wounds of Suzanne, when compared to the wounds of Susan, indicate that she was stabbed first'. They would not have given us the conclusion of the story, something out of a movie, which allows us to basically play the roll in our heads as we listen to it, as if we were there and accompanied everything. The signs that they had absolutely nobody who was a righteous owner of ID running those forensics are everywhere: missed notes, no collection of sperm, no report on order of death and technicalities involved, etc. 'Nelson' would have handled 'his' puppets very well - those he 'cast' for that particular puppet show - so that the evidence should point at that narrative. Notwithstanding, the completeness of the story (the beauty of the narrative, as if it were a play or a movie worth watching), with personal details given (that the friend would bother, for instance) - when nobody is there to tell them what happened (all those present in the crime scene when it was happening are actually dead) - can only be achieved by copying a story one receives either inside of their 666 or via computer from the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. We then find out that the Al Qaeda compliance officers also do not do any work when it comes to solving crimes/investigating - similar to the Al Qaeda female researchers (the satanic transgenders) - what points at everything coming from the 'brain' of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, thus from a computer. That perfectly matches our experience with the Australian police: we reported on very simple crimes sometimes, such as stolen passport in a place where there are cameras, who is staying there is controlled via formal records, there is someone working at the reception desk and so on - that was George Hotel in the CBD Sydney - and they wouldn't do a thing, not even bothering investigating². It is all realistically taken in what comes to police in Australia. Also in Rio, the same experience, even though through others. Police zero. In Rio, that forms the reason for people to wish for being friends with marginals, since those do the satanic thing, therefore may sometimes stop crime or produce relief, so say recover an asset or get a puppet to figure as guilty for whatever it is, when usually the victim has the impression that 'justice has been served' (they are not true Christians so far, so that they miss the connection to heavens, which is the only thing that could make them see that that was not really justice).

Nothing cabalistic about the number of stabbings because who decided on that was 'Nelson' and he seems to have no spiritual beliefs involving numbers, only using those if the rites of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood demand that they be used, as in the case involving 'Mert Ney' ([77] and Attachment no. 11). Since 'Nelson' decided on how many stabbings would be applied, it looks like the person actually killed and raping would also have been moved. Yet, Leinha talks about 'experience' for the negro. We have seen 'her' using those terms before to refer to 'an experience' in which the male teenager would perpetrate against his love interest and what really happened, we found out, was that some negro men - who appear nowhere in the official story - are the ones who actually killed the female teenager. She was the one who organized them also in terms of how many stabbings each one of those would give. Yet she claimed to be creating a new routine for their religion back then, basically, like in other words. We then imagine the 10 plagues of Egypt [9] to have been managed like that as well (each one would have captured a fixed number of insects in the plague involving those, for instance). Yet, back then, they satanic brotherhood/sisterhood did not have the head device/mechanical soul/666 and they were way too many negros (600,000) for the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood go applying voice to skull in each one of them, so that they must really have done that at their own will, which means their subrace/type, at least in what comes to males, is prone to this sort of thing and therefore could indeed have followed their script to the last dot, including number of stabbings. We believe any white would like to give as many stabbings as they feel comfortable giving if doing the same things instead, like they wouldn't really accept following orders in those regards, therefore automate their crimes, and they would take that to be an order, so that we have identified yet another trait that is a peculiarity of their subrace, at least in what comes to males. It couldn't be that they are getting paid to do that, just because of the other example we had, involving the teenagers: we thought of this hypothesis now just because whites could be doing that if it were a job, if there were a contract of work involved. It could be that they charged perpetration in exchange for transporting them to Australia, giving them IDs in the future and things like that. We had the story in Rome, where they say they would finally be able to read and perpetrate (Attachment no. 10), so that perhaps they do anything to get out of Africa, when they then accept the lead of whoever it is and all their conditions blindly, taking that to be the price to get out, like there is something 'we are all doing', which is taking over the world, replacing the entire human kind with our subrace, colonizing in the satanic ways all places on earth.

The baby was replaced, since the note is left on 3/1/1977 (read the date from the note left on the door yourself, its picture comes after this paragraph, this piece of information frontally contradicts the official information on the case and we are just 'lucky' to get access to good material in those regards, like someone who had their spirit more turned to heavens than to hells let this note be there, in this video, and probably also in their official files) and he is collected only on 13/1/1977 [79] but he was left without food or water, without basic hygiene and all else inside of the house. Perplexity: 'Infants and toddlers have much higher fluid requirements relative to their body size than adults, and their bodies are less able to cope with fluid loss. While adults might survive up to a week without water under ideal conditions, young children are far more vulnerable. Medical sources indicate that a child might survive without food for about 3 to 5 days, but without water, survival is typically limited to only a few days—often less than three days, especially in a warm environment. Dehydration in toddlers can become life-threatening very quickly, with symptoms such as low energy, little or no urine, dry lips, and extreme agitation appearing rapidly.'

that I was never with the folder when I got in. The satanic keep on following the satanic stories and the embassy of Brazil contacts me about 6 years later saying some church clergy member found the folder in it. That was what was supposed to happen, according to the story we gave 'Trevor', which I only remember later on. The person who stole the folder then left the folder there, in the church, so that the clergy member would find it, so that he is not insincere that he found it there, as the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood likes it. The cop they sent to investigate the door, now remembering his conversation and attitude, was following orders from the staff at the police station, just because he did get convinced of what I said and decided to come back to the station and ask for further investigations, when they did the CCTV thing, this time another cop. If the cop does anything different from what the boss of the station tells them to do, they will get killed and replaced, so that it is better for them if they follow what those say until we have Our God's Brainwashing going, which doesn't mean we don't need their help to, for instance, get someone from Telecommunications Engineering who is a manager of at satellite company that has the needed characteristics (so 3 geostatic satellites, able to transmit both radio and mobile telephone waves, and able to position those geostatic along the equatorial line in a way that they are equidistant in order for them to cover the entire world).

Leinha spoke to me about having someone finding their bodies, how they could do that. It was me who gave the idea of the crying baby, like she would have said that nobody was entering the house anymore and so on. We notice that 'Barry', in the satanic narrative, did not hear any baby crying, so that 'my' 'contribution' to their plot obviously referred to the neighbors entering the house on the 13th. In this case, since they speak to police, we must assume the satanic brotherhood had already replaced the baby with another one, probably just before he is 'found' there: the satanic worry about the reports to the police sounding like the truth. In this case, the satanic also monitored the head bug of those who found the baby in order to make sure they would hear it: they sometimes made my hearing become almost magical, like I could finally hear everything, even bullying, and understand. I cannot know if my normal hearing is like that and I remain partially disabled because of their bug actions or if they can give us super-hearing through the bug. It is normally the other way around, so that they normally disable hearing, specially in cases like ours, so involving non-members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. We believe they can make the sound of the baby be received via computer and then be transmitted in real time to their ears at any wanted volume through the satellite mobile mechanism in our heads.

In this case, the satanic were counting only on one note, which is that of 'Barry', being on the door and that is the only reason as to why we could get this note on this YouTube: they used the material that they had on file and they follow whatever is written there, in their computer. We guessed and the satanic now gave us the memory glimpse: the 'detective' popped up in my head and asked for advice. He asked about what he could be doing to help, given his constraints and all else. He reported that he had accidentally passed the house that they were investigating ('Suzanne's') and had spotted the note on the door that nobody had noticed was there. He then collected it and was thinking about what he could do with it. I then advised him to put it together with the rest of the evidence of the case. He said the evidence was already a 'closed case' (in other words). I asked how come. He said the people who deal with that had already concluded their part (we now know they do exactly what is in their instructions, received by computer most of the time. We believe they use the 'dark web', which would not have this name for nothing. It is supposed to leave no trace of access in the computers, as one thing that I was told during my Criminology course). I insisted that he had to include the evidence in the set of evidences, specially because he said it would make substantial difference in the case. He then mentioned that there was another note there. I asked if the other one made a difference and he said it didn't. I then gave him the intelligence involved, since he told me the details and we then agreed with him swapping one note for the other. He then disappeared with 'Barry's' note. We then understand that, once the satanic deal with the crime, so process the evidences and all else, they never check the folder again, despite the assertions in the video, that several investigated it and so on. That is because the official narrative has already been provided and they trust nobody will escape that, which is why we get the same narrative that the press published, yet the good proof at our face. May Our God bless those who care. This detective clearly said he received instructions via computer from the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood in what regards what he must do. Later on he regretted having told me that and changed the information by saying it wasn't via computer but we believe his first token.

The knife found does belong to the crime scene and who carried it to the vicinity of the train station was the same 'white' man who 'Nelson' made hold the blooded knife after the negro finished doing 'his thing', since 'Nelson' then 'moved him entirely', like the 'white' man would be just like in the crime involving the nun in the convent that we analysed recently - so in phase out waiting in front of the back of the house for 'Nelson' to 'put him in the movie'. He did not commit the crimes and probably is not the same man who left the voice message that went to forensics. He is probably innocent in all senses, like that 'Mert Ney', from [77] (also Attachment no. 11), seemed to be. He would be the one that appeared on CCTV, in those images of the man holding the blooded knife arriving at the train station. Leinha organized all that, so that she calculated even the angle the CCTV would get from him as he walked.

We believe the usurper of 'Barry's' ID number whatever (here we must observe that the person figuring as 'Barry' does not necessarily have to know that they did, just like it was with the second version of 'Moses', whose case we gave here in a more accurate manner) was replaced soon after the CCTV images were taken, so that the new 'Barry' would not have his DNA on that knife.

In case the usurper who carried the blooded knife to the station was replaced, then the DNA test was fair. If he did not get replaced, as it is Leinha's narrative to us, the DNA test is organized by Al Qaeda and involves Al Qaeda laboratory people, that is, replacements/usurpers, so that those, on their turn (like the detective), also follow computer instructions and then say whatever.

The journalist did get a call from the killer. Leinha spoke to me about it, like what else could they do, basically. The man who calls the journalist calls her because Leinha planned that with me, so that it is because Leinha so wanted. According to Leinha, that would be the same guy who was there with the knife (however she tells me as if he is the same person as that in the CCTV images and he is the one who committed the murders and the rape. We have to put things together each time after guessing and it is all very difficult (the other Al Qaeda relatives sometimes give other versions, the same Al Qaeda relative gives more than one version, each version on a different day, and they have a narrative that is 'officially' given by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, then the actual truth and sometimes a Christian version, let's say) but eventually we manage and therefore a person willing to get to know more should probably start with the last paper and always keep that as the truer version, most accurate description of facts in case we talk about the same thing again).

We believe that each and every time people are entirely moved by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood those that they move are killed on the same day, given our previous studies of its crimes. Our theory about the reason involved is that it fears the person might connect to Our Lord Jesus through the Holy Ghost and find out what really happened or give enough clues to those who are connected to heavens in that way to find out what really happened. In this case, the man who carried the knife to the station did get killed and replaced. We don't believe the man who attends the DNA exam as if he were Barry and therefore claiming innocence is the same man who calls the journalist claiming to be guilty, just because that represents change in narrative and we know the satanic always murder and replace each time the narrative is changed (for instance in the case involving Longinus and Our Lord and Commander Jesus Christ). In this case, the man who called was at least 1 usurpation away from the man who walked to the train station with the blooded knife in his hands. The narrative of life is then always inserted in the head of the individual via 666 and we don't think that is a choice for most people. Very special people, who would have to be the members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, may not get inserted narratives but we think that they also need that in order to cope with the 'role'. It is just that, in their case, they chose to get it.

The 'Barry' who calls the journalist was not lying in what regards where he was working, according to Leinha, so that he was indeed working in the Victoria Barracks when he called. We have the impression that a person should connect to military to work in such a place, so that it does sound odd, but, according to her, 'Barry' worked there, which might point at the righteous owner of the ID having been murdered during his time of employment with the Victoria Barracks. The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood was here wanting to, once more, pass the message that compliance cannot be trusted.

We accompanied the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members as they perpetrated inside of the Victoria Barracks by 1972, so that we do think the place is entirely taken by them: back then, they simulated the delivery of a baby (they made us think it was us even though I even walked with them to the place) in one of the installations of the place and murdered at least 2 people there, having transported them to there and everything and then having gone with us there and all else. There was absolutely nobody around at all times when we were there back then. Perhaps the satanic 'Barry' was working there because the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood 'owns' the place.

The most obvious thing, in this crime scene, of the perpetrations involving 'Suzanne' and 'Susan', would have been collecting sperm - which they said was in Suzanne's body - and testing 'Barry' for it. All 'Barry' says is suspicious. He says that he did not call her between 3/1 and 12/2. How can a boyfriend, who is still a boyfriend, spend 9 days without calling her? He says he entered the house to see her through the back door with someone else after the 11th, when the blood and corpses should be stinking at least a little, and he did not have not even curiosity of checking the entire house after calling her name and not hearing anything plus the other male also wouldn't put him to check it? There is still the baby, who he never mentions in his report but should be there, abandoned in the house. It is all suspicious and all those constitute points of proof against him.

Why they wouldn't go straight away for the sperm? Did they mention 16 detectives? A DNA test that happens 2 decades later? Have we heard all that correctly, please? What on earth? That is obviously the marginal! Leinha told us about one of the detectives being with their people, if I am not mistaken, but, given that it is all so absurd, we do have to infer all of them were with them instead.

They say the female journalist who got the call bothered and called the police, yet nothing happened (again). That was then to say that at least the manager and the detectives of that particular police station were all part of the marginal, we suspect. Then we wonder why they would leave the other cops out of the replacements thing, like they usually do all of them, so...

Leinha ALSO referred to the journalist, that he was with them too, so that she implied that he was a replacement, a usurper, a satanic brotherhood member. That would be John Grant and the narrative for his participation in the 'movie', created by either 'Nelson' or Leinha, together with me (those things, when they give me logical puzzles, it is like that all the time, as explained), is that he heard the 'women' yelling and tried to save them somehow, like they say he lived next door to the 'sues', and they show me a house to the right of those facing the back of the house each time I think of that. If he did exactly what they said he was going to do before it happens (either 'Nelson' or Leinha said), we think we are sure he was entirely moved. We believe at least this one was a righteous owner of Australian native ID.

Upon entering the house through the back, as the 'script' dictated, he got murdered and replaced by the satanic brotherhood, so probably by 'Nelson', who was on the scene. We now believe the guy figuring as 'white' – whoever he may be, righteous owner of ID or not – would have been the person to clean whatever they say was cleaned in the crime scene. 'Nelson' would have transported the body of John after he got killed and he also would have put his replacement in his house, all using the Macquarie spaceship that was parked on top of the house (as it also happens in the criminal case involving Tadea Benz, which we talk about in the Attachment no. 12). In this case, there was indeed no sign of John when compliance arrived.

Leinha mentions that there was something special about the song, like 'Barry' would have put 'their song' to play or something while he killed and had sex with her, probably turning off the record when he finished, which is why he says that to the journalist.

In this way, who killed the women was a negro looking like a negro. 'Nelson' goes with the spaceship and collects the perpetrator, cleanses the place as for clues (we believe he used the 'white' for that part, as said before) and extra bodies (that he did himself, as said before), replaces victims that will be told to have survived, moves the whites or others that will figure as those who perpetrated and then takes the negro looking like a negro to wherever 'his' place is. We got to this conclusion from analyzing the other crime of 'Nelson', the one involving the nun (Attachment no. 12). He dropped a clean knife where he entered, when we inferred he is not the one who killed. The negro looking like negro is the one that killed and raped the nun. 'Nelson' entered to get the blooded knife he left under her bed and pass it over the hand of the white that was going to figure as perpetrator, who he would make walk out of the place and so on. He also enters to mark the floor with his own mark in case there are cameras or others. The window thing was then just so that he could get the hand of the fellow that was going to figure as perpetrator and mark the knife. 'Nelson' then collects the negro who looks like a negro and takes 'him' to wherever while the white who will be blamed is moved by him so that he is spotted as the killer/rapist.

The main perpetrator is the one who chose this house because its roof was flat and therefore - he thought, as 'Nelson' told us - 'Nelson' would find parking the spaceship easier. We now know that because 'Nelson' himself, when committing crime, parks anywhere, even on the ground. He doesn't care. Yet 'Nelson' told me that he cared about the roof on this occasion, so that we now know for sure crimes are planned by negros who look like negros instead of my Al Qaeda family, who simply gives a few touches sometimes. The negro who looks like negro first chose the house, not the victim. After choosing the house, he chose victims and perpetrators (probably himself and definitely himself only). Leinha took care of the fake witnesses and she told me that somehow. We are then kinda concluding that my Al Qaeda family is also in slavery: they have this mass of negros who look negros forcing them to all these things, probably including changing gender. In this case, 'our' 'Nelson', the Al Qaeda brother, is not really the black behind and the black behind now looks like a multitude of them, so the blacks behind. Leinha and 'Nelson' then serve the purpose of planning the attacks and helping with the execution, specially when it comes to disarming us and arming the negros who remain as negros (Attachment no. 1). 'Nelson' would consult perpetrators to learn what things would make them think the perpetration experience was perfect, when he would plan it accordingly, we theorize³.

³ We noticed that the person who killed 'Barlett' and 'Armstrong' in the Easey St murders was entirely moved by 'Nelson'/the satanic brotherhood, so that it is very likely (99%) that he never wanted to do those things, very different from the one perpetrating against Tadea Benz, who probably paid for the experience. We then believe 'Nelson' uses the most Christian of the negros to convince those who are part of the Exu religion in South Sudan to perpetrate, like they say if even this one does it, why wouldn't you, and it is because they are Christians, therefore follow Exu (the interpreting thing), what strengthens its force but they intend that Preto Velho defends them effectively from Exu instead, as said, so that murdering those who are for Exu, specially with top violence, may make them be closer to having heavens on earth, we now believe could be what they are thinking as they do it. In this case, 'Nelson' and Leinha are the ones who make the negro become even a perpetrator, we now think, but they also move them to our nations, so that they can perpetrate against the 'right people', we now believe, which is why Leinha likes the most ignorant ones, who would then obviously be those from Nubia, specially those from South Sudan, who follow this Exu thing or, in Rio, macumba/cadomble/umbanda/etc. That may also mean that they don't really pay for that, but they pay later on not to be arrested, to become a legal presence in the USA, to get a job, know what to do, speak the language and all else, we now think. This thing about paying for the experience actually came from our head, that was Leinha conversing with us, as explained before. Since the man in the picture the satanic pass to the media (they organize everything through the police, it seems, their usurpers, like they give them the pictures to be spread and all else) looks and feels very satanic, we theorize the one who actually killed them is yet another, whose image only those in Africa will ever see, like 'Nelson' then could record every step via 666 and later on show them there, the person they thought was most compliant, most connected to their Preto Velho, doing all that, top cruelty and all else.

This is the back of the house where they died, so that you can confirm that the roof is flat (the satanic keep on showing only the front of the house, so that you may have doubts, and they disappeared with the website we had used last time, so that we now put it here too, to guarantee you have no doubts about what we say):

The front of the house has a roof that folds so that some people doubted 'Nelson' would have said the reason to choose them would have been the roof. Yet we now clearly remember him saying that to us plus he did the other one, on the convent and they are a match.

Suzanne Margaret Armstrong and Susan Bartlett

Each name is associated with the image of 2 different people: nose, chin and eyebrows comparisons will help you agree with us. The folds on the face should do for you to acknowledge that these all satanic transgenders, so that these IDs became satanic transgender experience IDs for the satanic sisterhood at a certain stage. [47] brings yet one more body image - different from the 2 images we see above - for each one of these IDs, but we there proved that those are different from all the above images.

We believe the original women lost their lives soon before their IDs started being those of women who were 'living together' in Sydney. That is because one of them even had a baby but they were both from first world white countries, Christian ones, so that the one who had the baby would have her spirit turned to heavens and therefore would have a stable life, which means she would not become adventurous and go sharing house, specially in another Country, with her baby. We do believe Suzanne had a Christian life up to the moment of her murder and the boy was her biological son, so that the ID was occupied by a righteous owner of native American ID up to at least when the son is registered, since the boy has a normal, non-satanic name, just Gregory Armstrong, but the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, if owning the ID from start of it, would have imposed their funny names to the 'boy'. In this case, there is an American native white, thus Christian, father involved (99% of chance).

We managed to find at least two different pictures of 'Gregory Armstrong' online and we then analysed those in [47], proving that both of them portrayed negro satanic men instead of our Gregory. [47] serves as evidence of what we state: the baby that died starving, dirty and thirsty got replaced with another baby before the police found a baby who was alive in the Easey St house. Both babies (the one who died there and the replacement) belonged to the negro subrace because Suzanne got murdered and replaced before the Easey St house incidents and, when that happens, her entire small family gets replaced plus the replacements of babies of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood are always of the negro subrace. The ID must have been usurped a few times even before the ID reached the age of 10 years old.

We have proven that the ID of Louis Armstrong was usurped before its body image appeared in the media for the first time ([65] is where we proved his usurpation. 1930, according to Co-pilot (movie Ex-flame is what it said and [84] gave us the year of this movie), is when the ID's body image appeared in the media for the first time). There is a long interval of time between 1930 (when the name Louis Armstrong appears in the media for the first time and the body image associated with it is that of a negro man) and 1977 (when the Easey St murders take place), which is unreasonable thing, as for the history of attacks of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, like they do entire families, small (father, mother and kids) and big (relatives of the father, mother and kids who be not one of those), in a really short time, yet we do think Suzanne was still a righteous owner of American native white ID when her biological baby, Gregory Armstrong, got registered. We believe the righteous owner of the ID Louis Armstrong was a native American white, thus Christian, person⁴.

⁴ From [47]: 'I would like to further observe that this surname is 'Armstrong', just like that of the man who composed one of the most played and beautiful songs ever created by men, 'What a Wonderful World', and his name was Louis Armstrong. Now the online information is different from that of the past, when I first looked for this sort of thing, since, in the past, it clearly said Louis Armstrong had also composed the song, not only sang it beautifully [40], but now they say other people, actually two, did that instead. Now and for the duration of my life, the image for his ID is black male. Yet, since I do believe their family is like ours, and spread also to Australia, having Australia as one of their preferred destinations in the world, and his family is white, since all images I see here are white, I infer the man who created that wonderful song was also white, so, like us, white native Christian American. I also felt spiritually inclined to believe that the first time I heard the song, so that I think that is sure shot. He could be another case like Madonna, who died in Australia

Neil Armstrong seems to have been usurped soon after he arrived on earth, coming from his mission Apollo 11, so in 1969 (Attachment no. 13). That is between Louis Armstrong and Suzanne Armstrong. Our family's case was happening by 1972 and we think at least one survived and went back to the USA, since a male voice spoke to my head at a certain stage and I was able to provide guidance, so that we could tell him the way we thought our relatives should do things, which was sending more people but not our relatives, people who did not have our genes/blood instead. We are sure that is what they did on the occasion of the woman who figures as our aunt in Enmore, so that they survived, they did make it and still warned the others. In this case, it could be that Suzanne got warned by our relatives about what was happening and she then travelled to a place like Greece with her husband, so moved to there trying to save herself from the 'unstoppable force' of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, so of the machine of crime involved.

II. Conclusions

We have determined that both Suzanne Margaret Armstrong⁵ and Susan Bartlett were murdered by the so-called "satanic sisterhood" at a certain point in their lives. However, this would have occurred before their IDs were seen associated with two women living together with a baby in Sydney, Australia. The individuals living on Easey Street under their names were illegal migrants who either agreed with or participated in the murders perpetrated against Suzanne Margaret Armstrong and Susan Bartlett. Furthermore, both of these individuals were born male and their ancestry can be traced to people of African descent/negros.

The biography of Suzanne Margaret Armstrong seems to point at a white American native woman – thus Christian – and that seems to imply that, due to the name of the baby not being a typical satanic practically before me in 1972 or 1973, so someone who accumulated songs and they were at most trying to publish/sell those by the time the marginal took their lives. It is likely that Neil Armstrong, the astronaut, who we also proved had his life usurped by the marginal long time ago (blog post), was also his relative.'

⁵ Before going to Greece, 'Suzanne' consulted me via head bug/666, I now recall. She wanted to know what she could be doing to escape the threat and she said she felt she was under the same threat as our family, basically. Notwithstanding, that was close to 1972 but the murders happen in 1977, so that it is clearly the case that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood carefully planned her life story at that stage. I suggested that she went as far as possible, just because the constraints she imposed to me, like I first said go to authorities, like not really knowing those are being usurped. We are sure that one was a usurper, so that she can only be the future usurper of Suzanne's existence at that stage, so that we are realizing they change themselves into satanic transgenders a lot of time in advance and just like they moved even Our Lord Jesus' earthly parents, if the bible they called Christian is to be believed in that, they moved Suzanne to Greece. I do think I may have said Greece when she asked me for ideas on where to go, actually I am now sure I did. We now don't believe Our Lord Jesus Christ was born in Bethlem anymore. We think he was born at home and the satanic invented also that one. Our God's people know better, are connected to heavens, specially those, so that they would not risk having a delivery in the middle of the desert (as it is what I had been initially told, like narrative in Brazil), on the way to Jerusalem, or anywhere else that be not their home. They invented that and that has never happened. In this case, they invented Suzanne's trip to Greece as well, like we are now sure. That is to deviate our thinking from heavens' lines, just disturbance, so that we go after her traces in Greece. Instead, she would have been killed in the USA, her home, together with her husband and young son, when the usurper travelled from the USA to Australia presenting her ID and the ID of the baby and then started the story of sharing house. That would be because they find it safer to move the ID to another location whenever the target/victim is well known in their usual place of habitation, so that we now theorize her husband was always seen with her and they needed to invent a story to be able to keep just the male figure in the USA, so that they probably invented they split because she, all of a sudden, fell in love with the woman she was living with, so became a lesbian or something, then took off. The story is then that she abandoned her husband and took off with the baby. Ways to prove that are, for instance, proving that the husband never tried to recover the baby but any father would. We now see that the satanic transgender, probably Leinha, observed our interaction with the male who seemed to genuinely be our relative (it is the ways they speak to us, the spirit involved) as he asked about what they could be doing from the USA, and she then decided to say that that 'was just one thing'. Interesting that the relative survived and found his way to our head bug, like how would he know. We then theorize the 'good CIA' told him about how to get to our head, so someone like the tall guy who tried to save humanity from 'Braganca'/the devil, 'Osama' and Leinha, who were all at the AFP in Sydney. He did come across as original, which is pretty weird, but we think we saw a few who looked like him later on, so that it is more likely that he was a usurper in a cluster of multiples who had Christian tendencies, like his spirit seemed to be turned to Christ/heavens. In fact, his entire cluster, if we are right in our guesses, like that those were multiples.

brotherhood name, she lived up to at least the birth and registration of her baby. We believe she was legally married to a native white American male, thus Christian, and we theorize he got murdered and replaced in the USA but the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood just wanted his ID to remain in the USA and wanted the ID of Suzanne to be in Australia instead, so that they invented some story of split, which we imagine was that Suzanne became a lesbian and took off to Australia to 'live her love', a case of a wife abandoning the husband and taking the baby with her. Since the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood is passing rhetoric in the direction of the husband being a simple fisherman, he must have been quite important in society instead, so where they all lived before they attacked⁶. We therefore believe that the official story about the father of Gregory was completely invented by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood.

The baby playing Gregory Armstrong definitely died in the house from starvation, thirst and absence of care. He died a few days before the police visited the place for the first time. The baby the police collected was an imposter and a negro and so was the baby who died in the Easey St house. The baby who died in the Easey St house was not the biological son of any of the individuals involved in the narrative of the Easey St murders (including all occupiers of the IDs Suzanne Margaret Armstrong, Gregory Armstrong and Susan Bartlett since the ID was usurped for the first time – so since the murder of Suzanne. That is because the IDs are in the hands of negro satanic men since then and those cannot procreate). This ID became a satanic brotherhood usurpation experience by the time Suzanne Armstrong was murdered and it was occupied by an imposter, who was also a negro, at the time the ID of Suzanne is seen associated with that of the female figure sharing house with Susan Bartlett in Sydney.

Who perpetrated those murders was an unknown negro figuring as negro and he was moved by my Al Qaeda brother, 'Nelson', while doing that but that was a planned attack, and both my Al Qaeda brother, 'Nelson Ricci Pinheiro', and my Al Qaeda sister, 'Lea Ricci Pinheiro'/Leinha, helped plan this attack. Barry Woodard lost his life before those murders happened (we make an analysis of the body image that appeared in the media associated with Barry's ID in [47] to prove, also in that way, that he was murdered and replaced before the date of the crimes on Easey St) - even though we cannot tell exactly when - and he was perhaps working at the Victoria Barracks when he got usurped by the satanic brotherhood. His replacement - whatever replacement number that was – did not perpetrate at all: he was moved all the time and must even have cleaned some parts of the crime scene for the perpetrators before being put the blooded knife in his hands and being moved from the house to the vicinity of the train station holding the blooded knife in his hands. He is the one who appeared in the CCTV images.

The person who called the journalist was yet another usurper of the ID and the person whose body served as provider of the DNA sample was yet another usurper of the ID as well. We believe the journalist got murdered and replaced soon after making that call. It is not possible to find her pictures online but we know that the police did nothing new with the information received and that, per se, since the information was really hot, indicates that the information was collected exclusively for the purpose of perpetrating. We actually believe the rewards that seem so high (about 1 million each time), offered by police everywhere in exchange for information on unsolved cases, are never actually given to anyone who provides information (we had asked the FBI officers in our head to put a terrorist, whose face had been advertised by the FBI as most searched and whose name attracted high financial compensation, in front of us at a certain stage and they did just that. We then contacted the FBI, told them that we saw him at the Salvos (employment agency) in Marrickville and they had CCTV in there and everything else but nothing. More recently, we contacted civil police in the USA because ‘Nelson’ had told us about a particular crime and the satanic gave us the memories after we solved it, there was a reward that was small, 50 thousand, and, even so, nothing). We now believe they are used to attract Christians, so that they go and murder plus usurp us. If the crimes ever get solved, then the cops must find a way of saying it was their own information, not ours, when they get the money and give most or all of it to the satanic sisterhood/brotherhood, which then found a way of stealing our peoples’ moneys also through that scheme.

John Grant, who was the neighbour who lived to the right of the house (right of those facing its back) occupied by two illegal migrants, assassins or partners in assassination, thieves of property and biography, originally negro males, therefore satanic transgenders, so imposters also there, in terms of gender of the ID, righteous owner of native white (thus Christian) American ID (we had studied this case before, but the satanic managed to destroy our work also this time and disappear with strategic data from the Internet, such as the biographical page of John Grant, which was on Wikipedia when we studied the case in the remote past –date of the blog post), who was perhaps a journalist (we found some circumstantial today pointing at that but were not sure and we don’t remember data from the post we had written also about him), got murdered on the same day as Suzanne Margaret Armstrong and Susan Bartlett, and, on the same day, his ID was usurped, when his death remained unacknowledged.

We have been able to determine a concentration of forces in Africa that seem to uniquely point at South Sudan as the origin of ‘all evil’. We reached the point of being able to name the tribes to which ‘Nelson’ and Leinha would belong in Africa, as for ancestry or as for birth: those would be the Dinka and the Murle. One of them would be formed of people born eating human flesh and we then think that one is ‘Nelson’s’. We believe these two tribes attend temples of this religion that we are now calling Exu religion but we actually have concluded that they may not adore the devil/exu, they may actually also be terrified with those, yet ‘Nelson’ and Leinha, and, before they are on earth, the other members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood playing satan, as for what those outside of it may know, keep on confusing their ignorant (we believe they don’t go to school or anything like that) head by saying that Our Lord Jesus Christ is exu, which means he and all Christians must be combated at any expense. Large part of what the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood has done seems to be based on language skills that only a few have, so that we found out that, by the time of the Red Sea thing, the Phoenician –who was playing Moses as for narrative of the negro to ‘his’ people but knew nothing about that and was actually sure he had witnessed Moses being murdered by yet another negro instead – played interpreter for the satanic negro when they spoke to the Arabs, advertising that they were coming with large numbers of people and the negro did not know Arabic, so that, upon coming back to ‘his’ people, he told everything that happened in the most twisted way as possible and added heaps, then speaking a language that the Phoenician –thus white and Christian (updating to nowadays terms)-would not understand, when he actually gets to put all those people with him, so 600,000 negro men, to actually push the other 600,000 Phoenicians into the water and over the cliff. It is then the power of very few that commands and twists plenty of negros to the level of those committing true atrocities for about 2,625 years.

We found out that the natural women born in Rio joined the cariocas at their own will, so that it has to be them who caused the perpetuation of the situation we are at now, so that of full slavery and being all commanded by this machine of crime and atrocity, of sin therefore, that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood is. Women are the power of any society and subrace and those were chosen by the creator and heavens to be awarded more powers of Our God, so those of extermination and start plus continuation of humanity. They can never fail when it comes to choices of their subrace, for otherwise heavens fails on earth too. That is then our crack.

[3]: It looks like the big bony faces belong to the original subrace from the place that used to be called Egypt (when the African map displayed Nubia as a geographical area. That would be the true Egyptian subrace, which the satanic negro man mixes with his own also by means of changing boundaries in maps) and the man who stole the Criminology monograph, after killing the female Egyptian (white, all Egyptians were white) researcher, was half Nubian and half Egyptian instead. The thief, who stole the monograph after murdering the researcher, had a biological father who was Egyptian (from the area that appears before - in terms of land and direction from top to bottom of Africa – the place that is nowadays called Sudan) and a biological mother who was also from Nubia, but the part of Nubia where she was born and lived before marriage was the part that comes after Egypt (following the same orientation, land), so from where it is nowadays called Sudan.

The thief/assassin's parents lived in Egypt when he was born and moved to Sudan (Nubia back then) after the father killed a man in Egypt. With this, this Sudan/Egypt mix, who is the man Leinha adores, would have got his evilness from the mother's side - clearly the case, since Egypt gave the Pharaoh and his family (daughter and wife), Amen's Wife (this figure should be satanic but we found out that she would only order the death of those who were considered bad elements in society, such as the cannibals who would not control themselves and would then murder and eat those in Egypt, despite the laws, so that she is equivalent to the American justice system when executing prisoners is an option and America is the wisest Christian nation on earth, for the white native American people were chosen as Our God's people after the Arabs were exterminated by the marginal), the researcher, the concerned compliance officers and the concerned citizens who go to the library in Arabia and end up preserving the monograph of the Christian (if they had Christianity on offer to her, she certainly would have joined) Egyptian female researcher, making humanity get to know about it, which means that the Egyptians were really caring and family people who tried to be as fair as possible in their judgements, and they would have been Christians if someone ever told them about Christianity back then, when they still existed as a subrace of human kind.

The so-called 'bad blood'⁷ theory is then a fact, it seems. It is the Sudanese subrace, in this case. Leinha then idolizes this man who, in her spirit/understanding, would have written the book they call satanic bible [5], which they use still nowadays in the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. It is just that the book she refers to was entirely written by the good Egyptian/Christian - Egyptian therefore white - woman⁸. Anyway, because she idolizes the man whom she believes to be the author of the satanic bible as a totem of evil, she puts what she thinks is his subrace everywhere now and she thinks that is actually then a good thing. By watching [3], after getting a YouTube about Morse code and a person kept in hostage who would have used Morse with the eyes to tell something to others [6], we noticed the blinking eyes and we then went to decipher all⁹.

Basically, that would be 'Edmando Cordeiro', from SENAI/CETIQT, as for what we are made to think: he would have prepared the story of this video to tell us - knowing that we would be watching it in the future - at this height, that he had been part of the preparation of another YouTube, the one on Hegel [7], theme of one of our blog posts. He would have been the person who gave 'her' the token, so the person who told the satanic transgender what to say in [7], since the message was 'MMM, MHT 000' - one of them - and that is then a reference to the story he once told me, about how 3M made from a failure a success like no other: that they tried to create the sticky tape but ended up with a product that was able to stick to clothes and was easily removed but didn't stick to paper in the same way. Co-pilot on that: 'Yes! You're likely thinking of Post-it Notes, which were created as a result of a failed attempt to develop a super-strong adhesive. In 1968, Dr. Spencer Silver, a scientist at 3M, was working on a new type of adhesive but ended up with one that was weak and reusable instead of strong and permanent. For years, the invention didn't have a clear application—until Art Fry, another 3M scientist, realized it could be used to create sticky bookmarks for his choir hymnal. This led to the development of Post-it Notes, which became one of 3M's most iconic products.'

The blinking was then 'Edmando' himself or someone else telling us what 'Edmando' would have done for us¹⁰. MHT is Mental Health Tribunal, so that the message is emergency, MHT, and therefore the information is that the satanic transgenders are judging us for sanity and everyone stopped - as in emergency - to be part of that and/or watch. That is then what 'Eliane', 'Carla' and others are doing now for eternity, as we had already concluded. The other guy also blinked, but what we said so far regarded the woman blinking in the YouTube [3] instead. The other message from blinking, so now the man in [3], was OHM, that is, Occupational Health Management: 'Edmando' then knew he was giving me the thesis for a new theory, basically, like he was sure ⁷ This is a way of speaking that simply implies those who raise the person matter a lot when it comes to their likelihood of being deviants/perpetrators. If the mother does not have the right spiritual orientation, then the kid is very likely not to have it either, which means that that kid will probably deviate from the praised behavior of the society in which they are immersed. [4] explains that even though they have been unable to connect genetics, with exclusivity, to perpetration, the environment plus genetics seems to do the trick in those regards. Environment has to also be understood as spiritual environment in which the child is raised.

⁹ 'Nelson' actually consulted us on what the person in hostage could be doing in a situation like that, if they were given only a few minutes to speak to basically 'their team', he wanted to know how they could pass a message to the team. We then came up with the eye thing.

¹⁰ We have the sensation that was 'Nelson' asking us how those things could be done in a way for us to know it had been 'Edmando'. If so, this conversation would have taken place in St Kilda East, 'Brendon Matheson's' house, in 2002, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, part of the 'Trevor' deal.

that was not what Hegel had said but he knew that, if I were able to prove that, we would achieve something big/great, as it happened (Attachment no. 2).

Notice here once more the beauty of all that Our Lord Jesus prepared for us: the intentions of the satanic transgender were injuring us to highest, thus the intentions of our Al Qaeda sister were also those. Notwithstanding, the satanic transgender ends up helping us to best, as 'Lea Maria', who loved Leinha very much, would think 'she' would and would like 'her' to have done. We thought always that Leinha had to love us, given the so much we went through together and a few other things, so that we could never imagine she would be able to do not even half of what she has done against us - specially the body thing - and that is also mostly because of 'Lea Maria', who kept on flooding our spirit with thoughts of love for Leinha. Once more, in those cases, whenever the target is with Our Lord Jesus, he seems to perform this little magic of heavens: of writing straight through tortuous lines (perhaps here 'Nelson' gave us a good hand too).

The bad blood people - then from Sudan - are those who had cannibals among them, we now think. The Nubian husband would belong to that subrace, therefore he would be a Sudanese, were it these days. We now believe Leinha's subrace existed together with that subrace of cannibals, so that they are together from beginning to end. Her subrace - so that we have the phenotype and all else - is whoever calls themselves carioca, including herself. We now believe they were two tribes: one formed of cannibals and the other of non-cannibals, both adoring Exu - therefore the devil - together, as if attending the same rites and meeting for religious purposes.

People who were born in Rio and are not with them or do not belong to their subrace should always answer the question, 'where are you from', by saying 'Rio' only. We showed one face that is typical for people born in Rio who are not cariocas in one of our papers. That was on page 99 of [18]. That it the guy in the middle, with label [201]. That is a member of the true subrace of Rio.

The negro will then say that these two men, in the 2nd picture from top to bottom on [19], look exactly like the Egyptian from [3] and therefore we are wrong and those are not whites. Yet please focus on the ears then: only those from Sudan protrude in a very meaningful way, which is something that uniquely identifies the negro. The Egyptian subrace does not have ears that protrude as much, like they still protrude a little, but much much less, very close to our subrace.

[20] points at the people who adore the devil being those from the South of Sudan, therefore those must be the ones we talk about. [21] seems to point at Leinha being from Dinka (because of what the negros introduced in Australia, the 'fair dinkum' thing, and Leinha does this part, of enticing men, inventing terms and so on) and the cannibals being from Murle. 'Dinkum' then works as singular for Dinka. That is exactly the way plurals go in Latin (neuter nouns, Co-pilot). In this case, when the 'Australian' man said 'fair dinkum' to me as I arrived at some pub in Melbourne, he was saying that he was a one-man's tribe that is fair, which then means the unfair ones go with the own men (in sex), we theorize. They seem to speak Sudanese Arabic in the entire Sudan (Co-pilot), so that we infer they had fewer difficulties learning Arabic than learning the other languages, even though that might be just rhetoric (like, perhaps at another time, when the interests in terms of engraving things in the Collective Unconscious (our definition) are others, they would say that they actually speak Latin). We are kinda concluding that 'Nelson' is a natural cannibal and therefore someone who would belong to Murle, so that his ancestry - while Leinha's belong to Dinka - would belong to the Murle tribe.

Here we confirm that it is all indeed South Sudan: [22]. Here it says that musicians from South Sudan are mental: [23].

[24] seems to be saying that there is a place called Jabal Shaytan in Sudan, yet 'shaytan', in the Sudanese language, according to Co-pilot, means devil. 'Jabal Shaytan' is devil's mountain, according to Co-pilot. We then see why 'Roberto Carlos' song said that he was going to climb the mountain to pray (Attachment no. 4). While 'he' claims, in the song, that that is to be closer to Our God - the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - we always found this odd, as we pointed out the other day in the blog, since heavens is not in the sky and any Christian would know that. Yet, if the mountain belongs to the devil, then he is in the devil's domain as he prays to his god—who is then not Our God or the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. That likely means that his god is the devil/exu, given that this mountain would have to be a hot spot for both the Dinka and the Murle peoples. Given that we guessed, the satanic gave us a glimpse of memory and, there, Leinha talks about this mountain, from the place where they all belong, so that this has to be it.

Co-pilot: 'Mountains in Sudan often have names tied to local legends, historical events, or natural formations. If a mountain were called "Jabal Shaytan" (Devil's Mountain), it could be due to:

- Mythological or Folklore Associations - Some places are named after supernatural beliefs, possibly linked to ancient Nubian or Islamic traditions.'

We here then have a mountain considered to be holy because you enter devil's grounds, closest to him, therefore, perhaps a way to communicate with him, making perfect sense of the story of the black Moses/negro replacement of Moses: he receives the so-called commandments on a mountain (Exodus 19-20) That is then the devil's mountain, so wherever they were. Who gave him the commandments was then the devil himself, making perfect sense of all and proving once more that who wrote that was the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood and never a person whose spirit is turned to heavens.

The picture above represents a website from South Sudan that makes us have no doubts about who is involved in satanizing the American masonry to the point of their 'members' having appeared in public pouring corn, oil and wine over statues ([34] talks about one of these ceremonies and Henry C. Clausen, a Grandmaster, pouring those onto the ground. That was for the construction of the temple. This man was obviously a satanic brotherhood member, not the righteous owner of the ID Henry C. Clausen. All that is seen in the masonry in that direction should always have come from a negro, including official material. See Attachment no. 5) the ground Even though the Sudanese show corn right at the top of the website and like what you see in the above picture, the website itself never mentions corn, so that it is clear that they love corn for some special reason. They then have 3 hands with corn inside (well, there is also what seems to be a tiny piece of a fourth hand there), so three again, their number. The masonry 'member' in the USA poured exactly 3 elements over the statue and one of them was corn (Attachment no. 5). 'Holy Trinity'.

[33]: The songs the negros from South Sudan sing (also when they are little) talk about wrath of Jesus, spirits coming to them¹¹ and the devil¹². They would have to believe that Our Lord Jesus Christ is responsible for all that happens to them, all good and bad things, when they are Christians, since they believe that Our Lord Jesus has created all things, including heavens and earth and all principalities or authorities [33] and those would have to include the devil (Perplexity: 'if someone (in Christian theology, God) created "all things," then this would necessarily include the beings that became satan and the devil. The mainstream Christian understanding (and all ideas also in Christianity are inculcated and created by the negro satanic men, therefore by the own Africans, so far and very unfortunately, with the bible having been their masterpiece, sources saying it is the most sold book of all time [42]) is that God created all spiritual beings, including those now known as principalities, authorities, and satan himself' In this paper, we prove that the negro believes satan and the devil are the same and one). They then experience highest amount of spiritual conflict, which has to cause deep suffering: the same entity

¹² [33]: 'We sing that the world is "with devils filled" and that it "threatens to undo us."' 'he (Jesus) is the beginning, the first born from the dead.' 'for in him (Jesus) all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities.' [41]: 'A part of this worldview (of the Africans) is the belief that evil spiritual powers, witches, voodoo practitioners, and deities are capable of inflicting disease, death, and other forms of evil.' Perplexity: 'The terms "principalities" and "authorities" (or "powers") in the Bible refer to ranks of spiritual beings or forces that exist in the unseen spiritual realm. According to Christian doctrine, these entities can be both good (serving God) and evil (opposing God), with the evil ones operating under the authority of Satan. The New Testament frequently references these forces, particularly in passages about spiritual warfare, such as Ephesians 6:12: "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places"' would be good and bad and they don't play a role in changing the entity from good to bad, since they say 'growing up in Sunday School we had a few songs that fell somewhere along these lines. When we pledged to let our little light shine, we said that we would "not let satan blow it out." Even though - in their creative theories - Our Lord Jesus is both sides of the story, so that he does evil and good to them (using another name (swapping IDs, so that, in their theories, Our Lord Jesus is a marginal) when he does evil, which is satan or devil or exu or something else), and their actions/thinking do not cause the good or the evil that is done to them¹³, but they can make a difference in terms of defending themselves from Jesus when he appears to them as satan/exu/devil/others, we understand that Jesus is an enemy (for he attacks with no motivation) that sometimes does good to them, which means that Our Lord Jesus is a satanic brotherhood member (the best they can do is not hitting/attacking or stopping/softening the attack of others but they never do anything totally good, specially altruistic).

If the actions of Our Lord Jesus are not a reflection of their actions on earth, then that is not a figure from heavens: that can only be a figure from hells: we explained it several times. Heavens is about maximum individuality (apart from when the individual already has an Our God's Coupleship, when two seem to share a soul), personhood and it is all about how the individual does things. Heavens doesn't punish individuals before their biological death since at most the coming of Our Lord Jesus Christ and all that heavens does is subtracting blessings, which some may take to be doing evil but it is actually a very different thing. It wouldn't be rational that the person were still protected by heavens if they were not playing by their rules, like they stop being one of them by the moment they break the rules. It is hells that is irrational and their Jesus is obviously then Christus (the vandal, whose bunch set Rome on fire, [61]. The satanic frequently change the name, now saying Chrestus. That is because their documents actually mark Jesus Christ [62] and then try to say it wasn't that¹⁴ what they have done to that side, since, to the other, they did something else, the Apostles' thing. Also because they would sustain that there is only one Christ and he resurrected to that side, the Apostles' side), one of the multiples [59] (the one who went to Rome) created by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood after the biological death of the body Our Lord and Commander Jesus Christ occupied around year 0, when coming to make sure Our God would have one more people on earth, the Arabs – thus totally white people - among whom he was born. For the creatures from hell, since all that there is in hell is punishment - thus suffering, pain and loss [47] - the best they can do is not hurting you or softening the impact of the horrors of hells: we do think that is reasonable. Once more, it is all about where we turn our spirits to: if I look down when I am climbing a mountain, I won't be able to keep on climbing. Not sure about the rational explanation, but it seems that when we look at the realm that scares us the most we cannot do anything anymore in terms of marching toward the realm that is our target. If we don't do anything, then we can't be directing ourselves to heavens, since heavens believes in our existence as individuals and therefore in our actions here and ¹³ If there is no spiritual explanation for the evil done, as another point, then the being who is applying that evil does not consider spirits and therefore is not Our Lord Jesus, who manages our spirits at all times. Also, the only creatures that do not consider spirit when doing evil are those from hell, so, for instance, a resurrected person or a person without a soul (as explained before, Our Lord Jesus collects our soul after our biological body dies, so that resurrection of the flesh is not resurrection of the individual, since the individual is the soul, not the body. Our God put the soul in our body so that our race, human kind, could progress/evolve, as explained before. The other animals (since we were like them before that) cannot evolve/progress because they don't have a soul). All wisdom comes from heavens through Our Lord Jesus Christ and is given to us each time through the Holy Ghost provided we satisfy the rules of heavens, some of those being pure heart, clean soul and no sin.

¹⁴ Those that followed the satanic version of Our Jesus Christ in Rome would have to be their bunch, so satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members, which means that, once more, who died from facing those lions, dogs and all those atrocities [63] was THEM, the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members, a case in which we can safely say that the shot backfired. Notice that the pronouncement of the Roman 'court' reads 'First, then, the confessed members of the sect were arrested; next, on their disclosures, vast numbers were convicted, not so much on the count of arson as for hatred of the human race. And derision accompanied their end: they were covered with wild beasts' skins and torn to death by dogs; or they were fastened on crosses, and, when daylight failed, were burned to serve as lamps by night.' Even though it stats well, therefore as a white could have said things, it progresses to atrocious killing, so that that has to be the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood already. The pronouncement was then probably in Latin. Just confirmed with Perplexity, so that, at that height, the satanic had already taken over Rome even though, by the time of the birth of Jesus, they only had those about 100 Roman Empire IDs and the entire rest of the Roman Empire still spoke Italian. The satanic claims it was Greek, but we think we are sure it was Italian. As explained before, later on they make the confusion by adding some words that originate also in Latin so that the person studying the language may state that it came from Latin in general, like they pick only a few examples when proving the theory or something (in case they obviously would also be satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members).

in those only (like, if I freeze because I looked down while climbing, I will either never make it or I will find someone who will help me, so that I can finally get out of the situation). A person who doesn't act doesn't exist, therefore is not an individual for heavens, which means that heavens cannot cater for them, but hells will always take those. 'Lea Maria' used to say 'empty head, office of the devil'. That also seems to make sense.

We were talking about that today with the satanic within and we then explained: there are only two directions to which our spirit may be turned. Those are hells and heavens. Our Lord Jesus Christ did this all to show to human kind what may happen if we choose to turn our spirit to the wrong direction, therefore the negative one, or hells. Basically, these negros, from the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood have their spirit/mind turned to hells: they worry about hell, not heavens. They say, 'I don't want to go to hell at any expense', yet I am unavoidably going to be sent to hell by Our Lord Jesus Christ, since I will always sin. That is setting themselves to failure and turning their spirit to hells, which may indeed lead them to end up there. In contrast, Christian/white societies would have their spirits/minds turned to heavens, so that they say, 'I cannot miss my spot in heavens, I will do whatever it takes to be there'. 'If Our Lord, Jesus Christ, was human by year 0 and lived a life with no sin, I can certainly do it too.'

The enemy (using African ways of speaking [43]) will then say, 'but Lord Jesus was a semigod, therefore not one of us.' We then will say, 'well, the satanic would kill us if they thought we had sinned, since that is what we told them to do when answering their logical queries.' 'Nelson' said he can give his testimony, that we have no sin and reality is that we survive this far, therefore we do not have sin. Someone might still kill us, when we will leave the world without fulfilling our mission, yet we will then die with no sin, since all those inside can see - not only 'Nelson' this time - that we have no sin. If we can do that, so can you and what could matter more than ending up in heavens/enjoying eternal life?

Someone might say, 'but you do have sin, since you lied down with other men, who were not your half, your twin.' We then say that there is no harsher judge than the devil and he let us live, yet notice that, in this case, we know already that I was moved by 666 to even notice those men approaching me sometimes, like they press buttons to create sexual urges toward them and all else, as explained before. Because of that, we can say that my heart remained pure and my soul clean and, if things are that way, not only the devil believes we didn't sin but Our Lord Jesus forgives what we could think was sin, which is, for instance, what we just mentioned.

Please remember here that Our Lord Jesus Christ does not judge inside of us, even though he gets to know all about us from having the Holy Ghost inside of each one of our human bodies while we are biologically alive: He judges only what is outside, what comes from us. It is satan that judges us inside, what we think. In this case, we have both sides pointing at us having no sin either because we really didn't have it or because, according to the parameters of heavens and hells, we didn't, like in the case of lying down with other men.

Our minds/spirits are therefore seeing heavens; it is like a geographical point when we want to get somewhere: we can see a place where everything is blurred—full of bush and things like that—and then tell someone to guide themselves by that place, or we can see a place with a clearing, which is easy to spot and use as a guide both in imagination and in life.

We listened to [44] and observed the face of the man together with his skull, since he must be from Sudan's natural subrace. We then notice the triangle thing that we had previously identified as Nubian face with injection of some chemical (middle picture, below), which makes us think those would not be Egyptians (as for the boundaries that existed when the map of Africa brought Nubia in it). Yet notice that his face is less flat than those: his has got a huge curve thing going, more like a ball on the top of the head, and his face is shorter than those we identified as V-faces with injection before (considering a line going from the middle of the chin to the line of the hair), so that we think we are sure those were Egyptians and this is Sudanese, so that this is the Sudanese triangular faces.

Here again reference to satan while talking about normal stuff: [46]. That is a political organization from Sudan (Perplexity) giving their views about a governmental conference. They then quote (from the Islamic bible) [46]: “Satan promises them and arouses desire in them. But Satan does not promise them except delusion.” Since it was the own satanic brotherhood/sisterhood that wrote the Islamic bible and they are telling the truth about satan, that is quite impressive, like it totally breaks their rules. They are effectively contributing to the existence of the human who is reading with such a token. If this quote were used for people to analyse satanism and decide between joining or not, it would be great. However, the Sudanese society is using it to make hate appear in the heart/spirit of humans while they are interacting with other humans: once more, it is the way we orient our spirits that dictates the results in general, so also those that involve interactions with other humans. While it is OK to hate satan, so using that quote to teach about him, and therefore incite hate for his figure, since he is immutable, like his nature is made of universals (just like the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood) and therefore his nature is that of the machine - which should not be hated in our normal lives, since it does help us a lot, but, as a supernatural figure, it does deserve hate, since it is not able to adapt to circumstances and the volatility in the determinations of individual human beings – it is not OK to hate other humans. Perhaps hate is wrong in any hypothesis: it won’t change the other and it won’t fix anything. It is a dark feeling. Christians don’t seem to have hate ever in natural situations, like, if our spirit is turned to heavens, we are connected to Our Lord Jesus Christ and therefore our feelings are feelings of love for each other, for the world and the product of our own effort. We also observe here how the life of the negro is difficult, since it is based on rigid and unchangeable universals, like ‘they hate’. Hate seems to be a point of no return, like it is impossible for them to change that feeling into the other side of the story, so heavens or love. That makes of them machines, no different from the satan we just depicted. Yet, even satan - like isn’t he my Al Qaeda brother - has moments of altruistic giving (‘Nelson’ making that so special panettone for me, exactly in the way I described would mean perfection or love, and giving it to me so that I could enjoy my perfect thing that his hands/mind/spirit made perfect). Even in this paragraph we have proven that the entire satanic brotherhood/sisterhood also had a moment of altruistic giving, this wisdom token. In this case, there is no sense in hating: it is just a dark feeling, in all senses. The word should be forbidden, since it makes universals be created in the spirit, as if engraving a direction of seeing things when dealing with some people or things that is impossible to be changed. That is decreasing levels of personhood/individuality/humanity in the individual, making him be more like a machine, when the individual is then better replaced with one, since society will at least know what to expect from the machine each time. Our God – the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob – and his son – Our Lord Jesus Christ – both don’t hate anyone or anything, like heavens is rational instead, this at all times, so that heavens beings can always converse, change their minds/spirit orientation/decisions. That is what we call wisdom and that constitutes one of the best reasons to be with Our God and Our Lord, thus with heavens.

Devil worshipper reference, Sudan: [48]. They apparently feel comfortable saying such a thing in the press (it is even in the headlines), what never happens in Christian societies. If they feel comfortable with saying such a thing in the media is because the people there think that is natural or common, as we saw in their children's songs.

It must be the only place on earth where they call drugs satan: [49]. That does explain 'Nelson' distributing drugs almost for free or for free in England: satanizing people, as it is the duty of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. Yet, that it just a chemical, which will unavoidably, given the intentions of the creation of such a thing, create imbalance of some type in the user’s brain: we, Twins of God, are sure that is impairing/disabling the individual somehow, and that is also the conclusion of compliance, since they say the individual is then voluntarily impaired, like if they ingested those drugs at their own will. [50] brings the legal definition of impairment for Australia: “impaired state”, for a person, includes a state in which the person has difficulty communicating, or understanding the person's immediate circumstances, or making informed decisions.

Examples

- 1 a person who has a physical disability that prevents the person from speaking or writing
- 2 a person who is sedated
- 3 a person who is affected by drugs or alcohol.’

Well, a chemical IS DEFINITELY NOT a supernatural force, so that the fact that the Sudanese give it supernatural force status has to mean that they don’t know the difference between something that comes from humans and something that comes from beyond¹⁵ and it also has to mean that they don’t see a difference

¹⁵ Absolutely everything that is involved in drugs has no hands of the supernatural: production, distribution, use and all else. If they say the drugs are satan, then they perhaps would also benefit from classes on how those are made. As we went through this part, we made the satanic within see that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood between satan and a thing (the drug is a thing), which is perfectly compatible with the feelings of those who suffer the impact of or observe the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood history of actions on earth. Once more, they all suffer from confusion, therefore mental impairment of some type. Yet, we insist that large part of it is caused by the fact that their spirits are turned in the wrong direction [17]: they would have to turn those to heavens to start having a chance of fixing their thinking.

The Sudanese use the word 'satan' all the time. See: [55]. Everyone knows that the Egyptians used to invoke Amen-Ra by saying its name and everyone knows that those who claim to work with spirits need the name the soul had when incarnated to be able to invoke those too, so that they would have to mean that they are actually invoking satan each time they use this word. That definitely means the spirit of this people is turned to hells and it is perhaps the only place on earth where that happens, so where satan is mentioned in the open, in the press, together with devil worshippers, which then further proves that this place is the origin of all evil. We studied languages of Africa somewhere and even reached the conclusion that a particular language was the language of the Nubians and, through that, we were able to conclude that the Nubians had relocated: from the lower region of Egypt and Sudan to South Africa and that conclusion was confirmed by the memory glimpse, where 'Braganca'/the devil then said the same thing. Yet, given the media analysis we performed here, we now believe that conclusion is incorrect. However, it could also be true that they split and then have more of their people in that area.

[56]: We think this man is saying 'exu' not 'yasu', which is Jesus in Sudanese Arabic, according to Co-pilot. Yet the interpreter changes it into Jesus, so that he is basically changing the devil into Our Lord Jesus as he interprets the speech of the other. We guessed and the satanic let us have a glimpse of memory, where we then see exactly the interpreter from [56] speaking to us through our 666/head mobile. He then asked for advice. He told us his people were into demoniac stuff but he feared people are going to think they are all like that and so on upon watching, since it was being recorded. We then concluded that the best for everyone would be if he swapped the devil for Jesus and so he did. In saying that, we thought that we were protecting Our People - Our God's People - from harm, since spreading things like that is bound to be hazardous.

could literally sell them poo and make them have hallucination through the 666. We made them remember what we said about how we know if the dreams we have at night were inserted in our heads by 666 or were natural and they did. The ones that are inserted appear in colors and 3D but natural dreams or head images have a very different nature, sort of gray scale without being, something very different. Since the human being is not able to produce 3D and colored images with their mind, specially those that appear outside of the body, all that has to be the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood moving them via 666, which basically means that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood simply invented drugs are hallucinogenic. They once more manufactured science out of the blue somehow, as said many times to you, that they do such. The intentions with the drugs are keeping people busy doing nothing and not reflecting upon things so that their lives are wasted and they are good for nothing when it comes to defense of the groups they belong to and also in terms of themselves, the defense of their own bodies and personhoods. The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood also used drugs on several occasions to inject viruses (AIDS, syringe of Heroin [52]. [52] describes a case of what should be a satanic sisterhood attack, since prostitutes are very likely to be satanic transgenders. If they are such, they would have the knowledge regarding the spread of the virus but would do that on purpose) in people or kill them (cocaine mixed with another powder [51]). Since drugs are illegal, that facilitates the friendship of the users with the marginal and that makes the individual be without cover from their society whenever they interact with the marginal. The individual they made be addicted (it is even possible no drugs are addictive and it is all bug-made) will do anything to get the drug again (also doubtful that this 'anything', even though proven in courts all over the world, was ever natural) and that implies giving 'service', as the marginal says, so providing information that is absolutely strategic about other people, their groups of pertinence, nation and so on to the marginal, who is obviously going to use that to perpetrate with even more impact. We believe the marginal started the rhetoric involving hallucinogens by the time they spread that people have mirages in the desert.: nobody really does, since, as we saw, it is impossible for the human brain to create a 3D colored illusion, in fact any 3D illusion. The only thing that can make us think it did that is the 666, since that is a mobile and a mobile allows for image of that type to be transmitted, inserted and received. We can all imagine really hot days, specially those in Rio, and then we know that never happens, like regardless of the environmental materials or conditions. Those within said that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood uses drugs as a way to get money from individuals. We here recall the experience involving the tea in Brazil: someone started a cult that revolved around a special type of tea, which they claimed to be a hallucinogen [53]. We then now theorize that they used the 666 to make them hallucinate, same happening with the mushroom thing [54].

Given that we remember having lived such an experience, this happened during our lifetime and therefore could not have caused the martyrdom of Our Lord Jesus Christ around year 0 in Arabia even though it does make us think that the more we hurt Our Lord Jesus, the more heavens things we will get, since he is then the devil. A Sudanese watching [56] may then infer that Our Lord Jesus is their devil. In this case, interpreters and translators have been satanizing this people for a while and that means that they themselves are part of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, even because no other type of human being shows up in my head up to 2001. That is then how all that story of the blood and it being Our Lord Jesus' blood that heals and pays for their sins makes sense: destroying the enemy of the people is being a hero or a heroin, therefore deserving rewards from heavens. Exterminating all Christians would lead them to live in heavens, so that doing that would change this world into heavens, since we are the devil on earth and the devil would then be over for human kind. By replacing us, they are becoming a better version of that ID in terms of what heavens may think; Malcolm-X's reasoning¹⁶, what makes them be cleansing the world by killing and replacing, purifying, we now think. If that is the case, however, they shouldn't be in multiples, so that would be only those people of African ancestry from that area and are not in multiples. The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood would then have a discourse for those of the type they are cleansing the world from the satanic/demoniac by attacking precisely the Christians or whoever is identified by them as Our God's People. The Jews are not Our God's People – therefore not Our People either - but that would be what they say to those, so that they are Our God's People instead. The satanic then prove that they are 'doing the right thing' by using those codes, which only those Sudanese and them would understand (showing that to the Sudanese as they usurp ID of Jewish leaders). Following that line of thinking, Our God would be the devil as well because He is the father of the devil. In this case, when they knock Mohammed's head, they are passing a code to the Sudanese: that was indeed for each one of those, since they are all/it is all demoniac. They then explain to this Sudanese people that they made us all make the sign of the cross to request that they crucify us too, that that is Our God speaking to them, telling them to kill us in the same way, like we are offering ourselves as human sacrifice (which would make perfect sense with the African people, coming from that Amen-Ra background). In this case, the lamb must be a Sudanese symbol for sin carrier, just like they put the pigs to be in the bi-ble they wrote. If Our Lord Jesus is their lamb, he takes away all sin with him as he dies, like the pig on the cliff they invented in the bi-ble (Matthew 8:28-34, Mark 5:1-20, and Luke 8:26-39): it seems that the Africans never take responsibility over what they do in their culture, frequently blaming demons/spirits for what they do to others or this world [60], so that, if the demons go with the pigs or, in Our Lord's case, with the lamb, and those die somehow, they are 'finally' free of sin. Australians were also lambs¹⁷, so that each Australian who was killed made those who killed be closer to heavens, as for South Sudanese thinking that is external to the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. It is important to emphasize that those who may be thinking like that are not the satanic people we watched in the video but those who don't go with satan at all instead. The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood would then have created that particular multiple, who went to Rome pretending to be Our Lord Jesus Christ, just to impress this crowd: Chrestus or Christus or whatever else was Our Christ, they say, and he resurrected. Who resurrects, they think -

¹⁶ The actual Malcolm-X 'worked' in the direction of heavens but did not have his spirit turned to heavens: he put together a group that would murder and usurp the negroes that were considered to be a disgrace for their subrace - so say ex-detainees who, after finishing doing their time in jail, would reoffend. He referred to that as being a better version of the person or betterment of the negro. See Attachment no. 6 for more details.

¹⁷ Accidentally, upon having to answer the door to a Woolworths employee, we found out why 'Bradley' had told us that it was not Coles—our preferred supermarket—but Woolworths that was the truly Australian supermarket. We then tried to ask him why, but he wouldn't say. Someday he said it was the fresh fruits and vegetables, when we then started seeing ads from Woolworths portraying their fresh fruit and vegetables. He has shares in some businesses and we believe he had some on Woolworths, so that he was able to get them to have that sort of marketing campaign. Coming back to the topic, the reason is that the name Woolworths suggests that Australians were something that could be under wool, therefore lamb—just like our Jesus, son of our God, who they made Christians everywhere repeat was the lamb. We then imagine they used the supermarket as a way to get to people's homes - say during home delivery - so that they could get their details, murder and usurp them. They could also observe those inside of the supermarkets and get their details from conversing with them - from cameras and whatever else as well - when they then would do the same, so murder and usurp them. They used to make offerings in Africa of that type (lambs/animals) to their deities/demons, who we believe were actually humans who would otherwise starve. They would burn the lambs—essentially cooking for them—and at night, those people would come and eat. One day, a negro discovered this by staying up late or something similar, and that is where we theorize the idea that the gods are all humans and males came from. After we guessed, the satanic gave us the memory glimpse and there 'Braganca'/the devil confirms things happened exactly in that way.

so that we now learn they are not so without wisdom - is the demoniac/satanic, specially if it is claimed that he self-resurrects (doesn't need anyone to make him do that). The satanic then further prove that Our Jesus is satan/the devil by introducing expressions of the type 'Lord of the hosts' to our mass as well as Amen, which they take to be invocation of Amen-Ra (the South Sudanese sees us all accepting and defending that, so that, in their spirit, it can only be). Those from Africa would know very well that Amen is Amun-Ra, therefore we are the ones who say human sacrifice is demanded. From there came the name 'holy war', it can only be.

That is then why the satanic invented that Our Lord resurrected people: to further convince this crowd that Our Lord is satan/the devil – the crowd must know the resurrected are empty bodies, without a soul in them, so that, also for the Sudanese, that must be abomination, which again means that they are not so retarded in spiritual things, just that the discourse of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood is really strong, substantiated by things like that.

As we found out that, Leinha appeared in my head in the figure of one of her multiples and showed me that we were no longer her family, that her family was that one that she talked about, from one of the YouTubes we showed in our blogs or wherever, where a very weird-looking guy appears dressed as a female prostitute and interacting with what seems to be a woman. In this case, believe it or not, the males from my Al Qaeda family were all lied to and perhaps proceeded on attacking for thinking I was also with her (the interpreter's thing, that I would have collaborated in saying that Our Lord Jesus was indeed the devil, pointing at them having done that way before that date and that being just to make a point, that anyone would have done like 'her'), even though we think that they needed to perpetrate not to get killed because of the brotherhood thing and me having no memory, having to then go through a schedule, which included getting those back in 2020.

It looks like here they think that if she is not my Al Qaeda family, then they will kill me just because they now started making funny noises next door and in the corridor, something like a walking stick being hit in places. As soon as she said her actual family is then the other one, I lost access to the newly acquired account with tutamail, which was the only one that was working. We are sure someone attacks from within the tutamail thing, since we tried to change my password and the system refused the code when we tried that. In this case, she must have created this email system, <https://mail.tutanota.com/login?noAutoLogin=true>, which makes sense, since 'tuti' was the name of 'her' friend in Porto Alegre, as for what 'Lea Maria' said. We now think the journal wrote to us through that email, since it was the only one working, and she then locked it also because of that. That would be for our last article, on the Ku Klux Klan.

[40] brings Leinha's thoughts on Our Lord Jesus Christ: that he is the devil. See: 'Pai, Filho e Espírito Santo. Exu, Jesus e Baco. Todos são o mesmo, mas são separados pela Igreja idólatra e disputados entre si. Jesus "vence" ao ser tratado como seu oposto (branco, europeu, frio, excludente, triste, sisudo, movido a ódio e desprovido de corpo). O preço a ser pago é grande. Ao ser desprovido de EXU e BACO, suas propriedades de vida, JESUS se torna demoníaco.' ('Father, son and Holy Ghost. The devil, Jesus and Baco. All are the same but they are separated by the idolatrous church and contested among themselves. Jesus 'wins' upon being treated as his opposite (white, European, cold, exclusionary, sad, stern, moved by hate and devoid of body). The price to be paid is great. Upon being deprived of the devil and baco, his life properties, Jesus becomes demoniac.' We now remember having asked her to provide her account on her spiritual beliefs in writing, so that this is her addressing our request.

She proves she never knew Our Lord Jesus Christ, since it cannot be true that he is cold, exclusionary, sad, stern, moved by hate and devoid of body (at least not when he was incarnated, what lasted for only 33 years). Our Lord Jesus Christ is instead the warmest person ever, inclusive of all, full of joy, with the most beautiful and placid face ever and moved by love. Perhaps this is part of the satanic philosophy of life: she puts all that she thinks is a bad thing over Our Jesus' name and figure, so that she can literally kill him and not care, so the story of satanizing the future victim of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. This disposition of perpetrating against Our Lord Jesus matches the story of the cancer in her body [17]. We see the word 'LARoyESHUA' right in the beginning of the document, implying that, if we think that Our Jesus Christ and the devil both came as a negro and the devil is the way together with Our Lord Jesus Christ, then we will have a home, so those who go for Jesus or their Yes Rua. It then looks like, for the negro, it was always about skin color: even though Our Lord let them even convert their black skin into our white skin and thus prove that it is just pigmentation and adjustments through a mechanical soul to go from one skin color and type of biological complexity (including no bad underarm odour) to another, the negro thinks that it is important lying about the skin color of Our Lord Jesus Christ around year 0 and the fact that he indeed chose only white people to be his own and Our God's until now, so first the Phoenicians, then the Arabs when the negro exterminated with the Phoenicians and then the American whites when the negro exterminated with the Arabs. The negro also doesn't accept the teaching we went through, that the skin color we enter this world with means spiritual level in the path to heavens and black is indeed closest to hell while white is indeed closest to heavens. Our God was not for them indeed but Our Lord Jesus Christ, in his infinite mercy and love for humanity, and, despite all that the negro has done to him while he was incarnated as human around year 0, and is still doing, like even and specially their Jews, he is willing to include the negro in the 'team' we call Our People through Our Solution, which includes brainwashing via satellite containing 5 instructions, among those 1 to make sure nobody on earth has the spirit turned to hells again. Let this be the last time this has happened and let the consequences of this experience never be forgotten. We will gladly list all the peoples and biological types, all cultures and civilizations, etc., that have been exterminated in part or in full by the satanic negro men during our first Marcia Hope (perhaps together with the delay imposed by the negro in terms of access to healing for main diseases and illness caused by them in terms of figures and time length). Perhaps we should build a plaque of some type where all these losses and others are listed and have that plaque to stare at each, and every, time someone on earth doubts that we should all be directed to Our God and Our Lord Jesus Christ in our spirit, therefore to heavens.

2) Blogger, Marcia Pinheiro, 'Hegel: the Satanic Negro's Opinion', date: 5/19/25

[7] – One of the presenters says that Hegel believed people seek acknowledgment from others—that we all desire status and need society because we care about how others perceive us.

Here the marginal is telling us that the reason as to why he does what he does is because some people will think, in the end, that he is their hero. We then see the following: the fact that the places where those people who are supposed to see him as a hero (we imagine he would be their hero for moving them from where they live to here, US, Brazil, England or others) are coming from are probably overcrowded, without schools or universities, without enough food and with threats from the environment of all types, including pollution. The marginal obviously did that to their environment, therefore to them, by not behaving as a man, as a true member of their subrace, people and Country, since the marginal stole so much money from all our economies that even 200,000,000 mechanical horses whose tails cut heads and mouths expel sulfur, horses that would certainly still move exactly like the natural ones, he was able to make, like that is just a small piece of it, since he would have used hydrogen bombs to bomb the earth in order to get earthquakes and splits of masses of land, invisible laser and all other things we have been talking about, including weather events as huge as the dust storm in Saudi Arabia or the floods everywhere ([10] and Attachment no. 3). With a fraction of that money - so just with the money 'Obama' stole from the USA economy in a single year, and that is trillions of dollars - he would have been able to give this people, whatever 'hell' they come from, all their basic needs, like can only be joking that he is the hero. Let us talk to them, please. May Our Lord keep us alive for us to make sure those people really know who he is: let's make sure the result is not that he will get some status from what he is doing. We can still ruin it, if nothing else, so let's ruin it ALSO for these.

The point of the speaker who has feminine voice is about Hegel's theory, though: 'she' says that Hegel told us that 'human beings cannot have an identity without their social or cultural background.' 'Human beings are social creatures but depend upon others to be who they are'. 'The only way we can see ourselves is through our reflection in others'.

You won't believe this, but both Co-pilot and ChatGPT were consulted and, after we read their opinions and tokens, we concluded this particular satanic transgender (like natural women seem to be realistically over, or almost so, so that 'she' must be a he) has come up with a new claim, which we think is actually fantastic thing, since we then analyzed it together - we and the head bunch - and concluded it is true.

The example that came to our mind was that of a man isolated in an island, like suppose it is possible that he has always lived there and there has never been another person there. This island is not a civilized one, since no human being has ever lived there apart from him. As a consequence, there is no culture in it: nobody has ever been there apart from him but culture requires a society to emerge and develop¹⁸. Because there is no culture

¹⁸ Co-pilot: 'Here are the key reasons extracted from my previous response:

- Culture evolves through interaction – Language, customs, and social norms develop through communication and collaboration among people.
- Culture depends on shared meaning – Symbols, traditions, and values gain significance only when they are recognized by a broader community.
- Culture requires transmission – For something to be considered cultural, it must be passed down, adapted, and maintained over time.

To support these points, here are some sources that discuss the collective nature of culture:

- Culture evolves through interaction – Language, customs, and social norms develop through communication and collaboration among people (NSCC Sociology textbook, <https://pressbooks.nsc.ca/lumensociology2/chapter/values-and-beliefs/>).
- Culture depends on shared meaning – Symbols, traditions, and values gain significance only when they are recognized by a broader community (BitGlint article, <https://www.bitglint.com/examples-of-cultural-values-a-dive-into-shared-beliefs/>).

and nobody else in the island, the man won't have culture either: the most he will do is behaving and thinking like the animals or plants around him.

Does this man have an identity? That is the question we ask. The answer we got to is 'no', since, first of all, he doesn't have a name, for there is no necessity: animals and vegetables know him by physical means and don't call him a name. If savages take over his island and surround him immediately afterward, they will point at him and say something that will become his name from that moment onward, say 'freak'. He is then becoming someone only because there are people around him, thus a society.

Is he already someone if he cannot speak or think like anyone else in this society, still mimicking animals and plants while pursuing only his basic needs? Does he have an identity simply because society has now been introduced to his universe and calls him 'freak'?

The answer is 'no' because he obviously needs to have those people acknowledging him as more than an animal (people frequently give names to their pets/animals) or a plant to start thinking of him as a person, as an individual; as someone with personhood. Language is a part of culture, and patterns of thinking are shaped exclusively by culture. For instance, the streets in Manhattan were named using a numerical grid system—1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. No other group on earth appears to have thought in that way, apart from native white, thus Christian, Americans. Yet that is pretty logical, so why is it that it seems that nobody else thought like that and it seems that nobody else on earth has a grid in the CBD?

Because culture means way of thinking of a group of people - a society - which we now call nation. The negro then says that he is 'I am' because wherever he goes he takes his culture and people, so that he is completely happy with moving to the USA through usurpation, becoming multiples and then crowding the place with those of his subkind. He claims he will preserve his culture and people, therefore he will be (someone), now with way more than what he used to have. Yet, we now see the following: he can only move at most part of his culture, since even the organization of the geography of the place is shaped by culture—such as the names of the streets, as we said, the materials used to build them, and the logical reasoning employed to construct houses, apartments, etc.

It is undeniable that the marginal/negro will lose the ID that he had before, so that he is not 'I am' now: he was 'I am' before, when living in his own Country with the culture and people he adores. This is said specially because of the Khadija factor [11]: full rejection of all cultural tokens from the place where they go.

If the marginal/negro were willing to acquire new ID through his moving, he would 'stop being a little' to become the same as everyone else there, in the bit that is added. This option also does not represent an ID addition (or an addition of points of ID), it is more like a Collective Unconscious process - shared ego [16] - which again means loss of points of ID, not gain. When we say this, we are not even considering the actual thing, which is that this negro/marginal usurped, therefore lost name, which is points of ID [17]. Most of the time, he also loses cultural choice of living environment, since he moves to our property. He still becomes multiples and he is still more than 600,000 in his head/spirit.

We think it is laughable that the negro claims that he finally became someone with the things that he did to himself and to human kind. We must not forget that whatever he does is still going to be part of someone else's biography - not his own - since he is usurping. He became a sponge plus words in another's biography [17] instead of someone greater or, in some sense, better.

3) Blogger, Marcia Pinheiro, 'Dust Storm: Saudi Arabia, End-of-the-world Floods: Israel, Floods: Arizona, date: 5/9/25

[8]: horrible dust storm, really weird and enormous thing. We cannot imagine how the satanic did that, but then how would we be able to guess the 'how-to-do' of the satanic brotherhood when they manufactured those 10 plagues that they gave to Egypt already in the beginning [9]? Someone seems to be saying that it was the Christians, like someone in my head.

[10]: Leinha told me about the attacks against Israel at a certain stage, I now vaguely remember. Good news is that 'Elon' said we have 2 years of humanity because they swapped the Antichrist thing with the pope thing. That was a YouTuber who appeared in our head and rushed. He was determined to change things but we also made some pressure.

The dust storm would have to have been planned many years ago, we reckon, since it is really impressive. It is weird that they would be attacking the place where they told them all to assemble, so the negros who were doing the 7 incarnations thing and did the 7 turns around the prism in Saudi Arabia [11]. The others from Rio were also all there for the 'great pickup'. We think different groups of negros finished the 7 incarnation thing at different times, so that one waited for the other and they then accumulated in Saudi Arabia and did the 7 turn each year as they waited for the others. Since we guessed, the satanic gave us a glimpse of memory where Leinha tells us exactly that¹⁹.

[12]: earthquake in Is-ra-el. It looks like the place was beautiful when the satanic took it from Our People. It was work of human hands that worked quite a lot, like those stones in Jerusalem that we saw paving the way and forming the houses of people would have given a lot of work for those who had to prepare/cut them and build all those things, yet no true Christian will be able to ever enjoy the place after this, like it does look like the satanic are ruining every inch of it. What most hurts at the moment is that the money from our nations - specially the big four we most bother about²⁰ - was actually used to run this satanic party of destruction but there is still the fact that humanity might never be able to walk the path of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, dear son of Our God, in those places or even find out things that matter, like there should be some value to what is there even though we can only know for sure after we desatanize science.

[13]: earthquake, Is-ra-el. [14]: here it is Arizona. We tried for long to get the brainwashing going but found no resonance. Everyone kept on doing the satanic story and therefore consulting the 'Eliane' involved instead of doing what we asked. Now they have done all this in damage and there is still a ton of other countries being attacked. Thousands of people died in China in a fire involving a building, enormous building: 42,000 dead. Here: [15].

¹⁹ A satanic sisterhood informant told us, via YouTube, that the pickup time would be somewhere before Is-ra-el strikes Iran. We guessed and the satanic gave the glimpse of memory when Leinha then confirms that these 144,000 men in robes will be hiding somewhere in Mount Zion, with us the understanding it is somewhere concealed, like underground or inside of the mount. They will remain hidden until the moment of such an event, so the rapture, like at least that is what they have planned to do. We think we saw this thing about the strike a time ago on YouTube but Co-pilot says it hasn't happened yet. If it has already happened and Co-pilot lies, which is common, then they didn't really got the dust storm. However that may have happened to conceal their moves, like so that nobody would be noticing all those men leaving Saudi Arabia when they used to be around everywhere or something.

This is usurper no. x of the existence of Roberto Carlos singing this song, in which there are elements of heavens and hells (climbing the mountain to be closer to Our God is satanic stuff, not necessary and used to pass narrative that deceives to the women they betray, so that it brainwashes everyone with the idea that Our God/heavens/Our Lord are closer to people who climb a mountain or are on top of it, so closer to people who go to highest places. Negro men are very malleable and agile with their bodies and they are usually the only ones who can reach highest altitudes or remain on spots that are located at those, so that they are brainwashing us with the idea that they are the ones who are closest to Our God/Our Jesus/heavens when they are actually closest to hells instead, as we keep on proving. Being grateful to Our Lord Jesus Christ for all we have and are able to do is a wonderful feeling/disposition of the spirit, which does align with synchronizing with the Holy Ghost, through which all heavens' wisdom comes to us. Listening to the voice that calls us and implying that that is Our God is satanic: Who speaks to us since the murder of Our Lord Jesus Christ by the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood is at most Our Lord Jesus Christ, not Our God, and he speaks to inside of us, usually through the Holy Ghost, not from outside of our body).

Our Lord let this all happen and people enjoy their tunes – of the usurped - because the original/righteous ID holders were Christians, probably with top contributions to humanity, and therefore should be remembered. The songs need to be desatanized (which includes translating them in an artistic way into English (we have translated it in a non-artistic way because we did not take rhymes, the tabs or anything else into consideration when we did it) and make them become property of humanity as a whole, like the wonders of humanity when they are really good, like Hava Nagila or this one after due fixing, when the name of the righteous owners, together with their actual body images, can be eternized on earth). Here you listen to the usurper no. x singing it: [25].

Roberto Carlos

[27]

The 5 pictures above represent very different men: simple comparison of noses, chins and ears will make you see that. None of them is the righteous owner of the ID, since they are all negros (ears that protrude, shape of faces – the Nubian factor, folds of the face and so on) but he was a white man. The ID is then a satanic brotherhood usurpation experience since at least 1959. [30] brings a song and a voice that they claim belongs to him, yet we don't believe that is true, like not to the righteous owner. The lyrics is too stupid when it comes to rhymes and the name of the song is also stupid ('John and Mary'). We believe the righteous owner of this ID wrote The Mountain, but its lyrics and perhaps title were not like that, since Brazil was a Christian Country and they therefore had their spirit turned to heavens, not hells, but we explained before that only those who have it turned to hells would think that being on top of a mountain is being closer to Our God. Careful analysis of patterns and biographies from before they get usurped should tell us which songs and voices belong to righteous owners of IDs and which don't, yet desatanizing should mean including songs that are good in the righteous owners' biographies, since they were made through their IDs. The ones that are not good should be dumped, though.

See here a piece of the lyrics of Joao e Maria [31]: 'Levou Maria ao bosque passear E borboletas lindas apanhar Mariiazinha não sabia, não Das intenções do João' (He took Mary to the bush for a walk And to catch beautiful butterflies 'Little Mary' didn't know, didn't About the (bad) intentions of John). Here the satanic brotherhood tries to create satanic thinking in society: that Joao, a Brazilian man, therefore a Christian, would deceive the woman with him. The lyrics goes farther and says that 'João, coitado ficou abandonado Com as borboletas na mão coitadinho do João', that is, 'John, poor thing was left abandoned With the butterflies in his hand poor thing, John'

Since we guessed, the satanic gave us the memory glimpse and there 'Braganca'/the devil confirms that this particular lyrics was not written by the righteous owner of ID and that was indeed a scoff, so that this lyrics were entirely written by the satanic. It is clear to us that they then used a rhythm that was in fashion at the time in Brazil when building this song as well.

We thought we had been able to locate the righteous owner's image of this ID by retrieving a picture that is similar to the one above, from when of his first studio recording. Notwithstanding, the satanic deleted our blog post, where we addressed his usurpation and managed to disappear with the website where such a picture was, then appearing with this one, which we think is a falsification of the previous one, even though he was also with a microphone in that one. We then believe they changed his looks. We cannot determine if this one belongs to a negro or not but we observe the long neck and the distance between the middle of the chin and the most extreme part, straight line considered, of the head, which may point at negro.

As we were reflecting on what can be done regarding the biography of the righteous owner of ID when it involves art, we realized that all these stolen IDs from arts will convert into funds for the governments concerned, and the value of the income generated is going to be high because the satanic made the artistic items, specially musical ones, be worth quite a lot. That is fantastic, given the enormous losses, including financial, that they have caused to our nations.

5) Masonry and the satanic corn, oil and wine

ChatGPT: ‘the ceremony you’re referring to took place on September 18, 1793, when President George Washington laid the cornerstone of the United States Capitol building in Washington, D.C. This event was conducted as a Masonic ritual, during which Washington, dressed in full Masonic regalia, participated alongside other Freemasons. As part of the ceremony, they poured corn, wine, and oil over the cornerstone, symbolizing nourishment, refreshment, and joy, respectively.’

[35] confirms that that is what happened back then.

The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood had already taken over all lodges where this was happening then, so had decapitated those, which means they murdered the top of the lodge and usurped the existence of those at the top that they murdered each time.

[37] seems to finally let us know what the negros are thinking upon falsifying the books from masonry and obliging attendees to do this sort of thing. See [37]:

‘The corn in the Masonic rituals is a synonym of grain or wheat. In ancient rituals was used as an emblem of the Greek goddess Demeter, or of the Roman Cybelis. Both female figures were conceived as appearances of the Mother Earth.’

‘Following the same religious beliefs was wine the symbol of Greek God Dionysos. By drinking the wine the Dionysiac priests and initiated participants to the Bacchical mysteries were able to come to the psychic condition of "methexis" - a condition of holy madness -, so they could play the drama of ritual death and rebirth of Dionysos. The wine helped them to loose their identity and come as divine actors to a psychological situation, under which they understood hidden truths and the divine allegory by using their feelings and insights rather than their intellect. The wine was seen as a symbol of joy, exaltation, and as a mean towards the initiation through the emotion and the instinct, by acting in Bacchical rituals, after having eliminated the logic.’

‘The oil was, as an extract of the olive fruit, a reward of the Greek goddess of knowledge Athena - Pallas, who had as emblem, among others, the olive-tree. One of the principal uses of oil was to bring the light in homes, so it was seen in its more esoterical significance as a symbol of spiritual Enlightenment.’

‘King Solomon gave corn, wine and oil to the builders of the Temple as a reward for their labors.’ (so here we further prove the bible is coming from the same agent, the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood).

‘In the Christian symbolism the corn refers to the bread and this last one makes someone remember of the body of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, as well as the wine refers to the blood of him.’

[38] says that, in macumba, exu/the devil takes ‘offers’ (banquets) of the type ‘milho amarelo com azeite de dende’, which means ‘yellow corn with palm oil’. The website [33] then has a picture of 3 hands (there is an edge of a fourth hand there but the intention is that it remains unnoticed) offering corn to the devil/exu, yellow corn.

[39] is a dictionary made for Umbanda. The title mentions a language they call Yoruba. There we see the three elements mentioned in the following way: corn is a product largely used in ‘terreiros’ (name of the piece of land where their rituals take place) in several ways, including rituals, oil can be used even for ‘jobs’ of ‘Alta Magia’ (High Magic).

The whites never thought of using food as an offer of any type apart from at most friendship with fellow human beings, so that all those things the marginal put in the books he imposed to us, such as the bible he called Christian and said had been put together by people who earned the title of most connected to heavens in human kind, if true, can only have been things that happened to his own people, so negro men, perhaps a few playing whites or women. The whites would never tolerate or create rites involving food either, so that it has to be the negro that to introduce all those things anywhere they are seen, probably through usurping existences of whites. The masonry is just one more victim of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood colonization system, which accompanies its usurpation of our people’s existences.

6) Malcolm-X

The 5 pictures above show 5 very different men: nose and chin comparisons will make you agree with us. Please observe how much the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood scoffs at us, Christians: the 1944 pictures show 2 different men but they are supposed to show the same one, since these are pictures from the police. The man to the left of those facing the picture has got jaws that protrude while the man to the right doesn't. Even their shoulders are different. That obviously means everyone who investigated or recorded this case in the name of the American compliance force was a member of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, this at most in 1944. The date of the leftmost picture was given by Co-pilot.

Malcolm-X used to run a usurpation business in Brooklyn, according to 'Braganca'/the devil, if we recall well what he told us. According to him, the title of his philosophy was 'the betterment of the negro', basically. He would see the negro that, for instance, had done his time in jail but reoffended and then organize to get that one killed and replaced with what should be 'his better version'. According to 'Braganca'/the devil and 'Nelson', they would have invaded his business after some disagreement and would have taken over. We understand that they then usurped his entire control system, so the computer systems, more than likely, through which he controlled usurpation. They would then have taken over or decapitated also his group.

That makes us think there was more than one group doing the same things and they accidentally found out that, when they decapitated them. In this case, however, we don't believe the Malcolm-X who ran such a group in Brooklyn originally had the 666: we believe he just put a new version of the man there. We then also believe the only hypothesis that is possible is that he worked with illegal migrants, which then explains the fact that all negroes (from African ancestry) seemed to accumulate in those three suburbs in NYC – Brooklyn, Queens and Bronx - and any whites 'crossing' the line dividing those from the rest of Manhattan would get shot or attacked or killed somehow. Yet that doesn't seem to make not even the first Malcolm-X ID holder a better person, like, if he concealed illegal migrants and made the negroes set up watch in the borders of those suburbs, he would have to be a very serious marginal, even if we are willing to accept the move that that was a more heavens' friendly usurpation system.

The fact that he was born in Nebraska but moves to NYC, per se, already indicates disturbance. Even if the surname is right on Wikipedia [57], but we don't think it is, since otherwise 'Braganca'/the devil would have mention some oddity with his original name and we don't remember but don't think he did, the other whites that appear in the media with the same surname as his are plausible evidence of the family of his name being originally white, which probably means the righteous owner of the ID got attacked still in Nebraska or when he travelled somewhere for a temporary stay. We are white American native people, us two, and if there is one thing we like is 'the same', like we don't like moving, since we get attached to our families and locals. I think, to be sincere, that we don't even like travelling overseas. We observe that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood needed to send an invitation to our parents for them to go and visit India for the first time in life even though the movie, where mum acted, was screened there as a big thing.

Clarence C. Little [58] is white and was alive by the time 'Malcolm-X' was alive as well. See his advertised image:

He was also born in the USA, even though in a location different from Malcolm's [58]. We notice that the above image is that of a negro (ears in funny geometric shapes, squarish, neck of same width as head, face that more or less obeys the shape of that of the Nubians, even though it seems to belong to yet another subrace of the Africans). He was colored via the 666 people (now we know they used chemicals to convert the skin color), therefore by the satanic brotherhood. If he was, though, the family was originally white.

Once more, the USA, Brazil, England and Australia were all white countries and therefore Christian. Notice that it makes more sense for the marginal to put himself where the whites enter their area and, when I was in NYC, I hired a bike and went to their area by mistake (when we would have to realize pretty quickly, since absolutely everyone there is black, which is just one more proof of hostile presence, not friendly, like someone who likes America and Americans would live where we are instead). Since it looks like continuation of Manhattan. We then believe Brooklyn is the right place even though it is a bit hard to work out things by looking at the Googlemaps.com page.

If he was Malcolm-X, that should mean he always existed in multiples and the multiples had different surnames, as it is with 'Ross' or 'Candido' ('Osama' came to our head and said the accountants were called 'Candido da Silva'. Yet he is my Al Qaeda uncle through the name 'Candido Vieira' instead). They then did that to make their lives easier, like cleaner and simpler to deal with, since they all used that umbrella name when speaking to others.

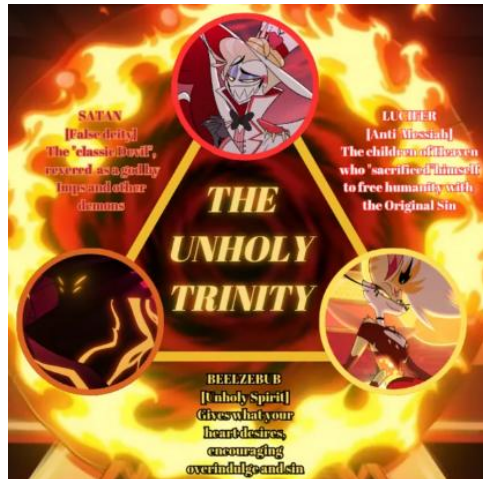

We now also believe that this one would 'import' both men and women to the USA and therefore his usurpations didn't discriminate against genders. Perhaps, for a person who is an illegal migrant and is accumulating there in the USA, living any amount of time inside of a legal ID and with everything organized for them by the previous occupier of the ID, is a blessing of no dimension, and it is only in this way that we can imagine the 20-year deal of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood to be something wanted. In this case, perhaps the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood started doing the 20-year thing only after they saw 'Malcolm'-X's scheme.

Also please observe that the righteous owners of the IDs used by the cluster of multiples under the umbrella Malcolm-X would have loved their families - for we are all Christians - therefore birth names, very much, so that they never changed their natural names to Malcolm-X while their birth biological body was alive.

Probably the case that the computer system used by 'Malcolm'-X was made for a 20-year period, so that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood decided to set that as a rule based on that, but then invented other explanations not to say it is because they really don't work/produce/change anything.

7) Blogger, Marcia Pinheiro, 'Moon, Star and Triangles in Flags, Among Others', date: 5/18/25

The negros marked their conquests by imposing flags to the invaded nations. The flag of Saudi Arabia brings a sword to tell us the story: that it was through war or armed fight that they took over and imposed Islam. Islam is Is-I-Am, as we said before, just that now we understand the meaning of this better, which is that the man at the top of the pyramid of oppression/slavery created in each Country that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood made become theirs is the All-seeing eye, so human eye, of 3 entities, which the negros consider to be supernatural: lucifer, satan and beelzebub. See here:

The 'I am' then means that figure (which will be multiples and we just found out multiple negros figuring as negros control those) the eyes see - so one of the multiples sharing ID - is the 'all negros behind the multiples, moving them via bug', so that THEY ALL ARE (or become²¹) through that ID they usurped. The negros then see themselves as a collectivity - those from the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood - image that is perfectly compatible with that of the 600,000 that go to Arabia 'as one' and come back after that 'as one' to cast the 10 plagues over Egypt [9]. 'I am' then means 'I am, through the usurped ID,' someone, so a 'hell' lot of them, say the 600,000 each time, are someone through the usurped ID (back then, at the time of the plagues, Moses' ID).

The Phoenician – thus white – man who had witnessed the murder of the Pharaoh and Moses by the satanic brotherhood²² had been kept unaware that he was his replacement²³ and what he thought was that he was following instructions of a fellow (who was however black and did not adore Our God when he did) slave by moving to where he moved - still inside of Egypt - after witnessing the murder of the Pharaoh and Moses. The Nubian male who played witness with him told him he would someday - when he had managed to tell the population and the slaves and they were all to their side, of the witnesses – go after him where he told him to move to. That would be because he knew that one of the Nubian fellows, who had killed the Pharaoh, had plotted against the Pharaoh and Moses together with the Pharaoh's wife and daughter²⁴ and he proved that to the Phoenician witness by showing one of the Nubians, the one that he had seen killing the Pharaoh (they organized things like that because they thought people would bother more about the Pharaoh) - not the husband who perpetrated against the biological parents of Moses, but the other one - appearing through the open door of the palace of the Pharaoh, as if he were living there, which was what the Nubian witness claimed, that he did.

²³ One of the 3 Nubian men – thus black - who plotted against the Pharaoh and Moses, then killed both (we believe 2 men killed those, one for each, joint attack), would have told the other slaves that that was Moses leaving them when the Phoenician slave (Moses was not a slave, he had been raised as a son of the Pharaoh – white male, since all Egyptians were white) – the eye witness – left the place in a rush, following the instructions of the same Nubian man (who would also have been an eye witness but this one would have made the Phoenician witness come to the place and watch all as well). The reasons he alleged Our Moses had to run away were that he had fallen in love with a female who was a slave (his wife went with him) and decided to run away because the Pharaoh and his family would not allow him to marry a slave.

²⁴ The story told by the Nubian witness to the Phoenician witness is slightly different from the others: the story was that Moses and the Pharaoh had an affair - so that both were homosexual - and the wife of the Pharaoh was unhappy, just because the negro understood very well that his wife was sexually unhappy with him, so that was the Nubian, but the Phoenician wife was extremely happy and satisfied and the Phoenician woman justified that with Our God, the presence of Our God in their lives. The negro then thought that a sexually happy woman was worth a god for the whites and the Pharaoh's wife and daughter were both white, so was the Pharaoh. Homosexuality between those two would certainly imply sexual unhappiness for the wife, thus enough reason to kill for the whites.

Time passed and that Phoenician, who the other slaves judged to be Moses because of the other witness' report, procreated with his wife, who he took with him (everyone knew that Our Moses was single, so that is why the Nubians who perpetrated had to invent that Moses had fallen in love all of a sudden and had then taken the love of his life with him as he departed). The Nubians (those 3) had plotted that they would eventually go after the Phoenician who was eye witness and ask him to put his people together, so that they would be able to come with their people and usurp those. They decided time was up after the 3 enjoyed life in Egypt in the condition of Pharaoh, probably swapping places/IDs and living all in the palace for a time, perhaps 3 years. One here must observe that they did not free anyone up to that point, so that, even though they became Pharaoh and could have done it at any time, they enjoyed Pharaoh's life instead, all the 3 of them. After those 3 years, the Nubian that played witness 'finally' went after the Phoenician and knocked at his door. The Phoenician answered and let him know he now had a baby and all else. Since we guessed, the satanic gave us a glimpse of memory and there 'Braganca'/the devil tells exactly that (the knocking at the door, not of the bush). The story of the his Nubian who was also an eye witness was that there had been plenty of struggle and lots of people thinking that he had been the one that killed the Pharaoh and Moses, that they were all revolted and wanted him done. He then decided that the best strategy was telling the Pharaoh that the people were actually with them and ask the Pharaoh to release 600,000 of both peoples, his (Nubians) and the Phoenician's, in exchange for him to make people not suspect the new Pharaoh anymore. The new Pharaoh just wanted to be supported and popular, so that he had accepted. They had to depart as soon as possible, just in case the new Pharaoh changed his mind.

To the people and the other slaves - after both Pharaoh and Moses were murdered and their corpses dealt with in secrecy - the Nubian witness told that the Pharaoh and Moses had both taken off. While they didn't know the reasons of the Pharaoh, he had left a cousin as his replacement, and Moses had ran away with the love of his life, who he had fallen in love instantaneously, on the same day he took of.

The Nubian witness then organized with Moses that they both would collect their fellow slaves (the Nubian claimed to still be a slave) - so 600,000 each - and meet next to the 'Red Sea' (which only became Red Sea after the massacre of the Phoenicians, as explained before), a place he could get to by making a straight line from where he was.

After this Nubian witness put his 600,000 together, he started explaining to them that they were going to Arabia and there people had other skin color, just like the Phoenicians. While the Arabs had no prejudice, since the own Phoenicians let them know that, the Phoenicians mistreated them all the time. They kept on rubbing their God at their face, saying they were better, their marriages were decent things, that people could not marry the way they did and so on. That because the Nubian husband had someday chosen a woman among the slaves and forced her to him. She then accepted and they then both called that marriage. The Nubian told the slaves that, even though the Pharaoh had left all of a sudden, giving no warning to his family or anyone else, and his fellow had then volunteered to take care of the so fragile wife and daughter, now sick and all else (they kept them in hostage and told everyone else they got sick because the Pharaoh and Moses had left like that), when he had to do a number of things to help them, the Egyptian people (all white) were incredibly racist and kept on rejecting him because he was now in the palace instead of together with the other ones 'of his type'. In reality, they all liked the Pharaoh and Moses, also the rest of the family, and kept on asking about them and not believing what they were told. He told them that the murderer of the Pharaoh had managed to negotiate with the (dying) family of the Pharaoh the freedom of a few of them: he had initially asked for 600,000 Phoenician slaves to be freed, since they were whites and that should be easier to get. They were dying, worried about being forgiven by God for all the evil they had done, so that they agreed. He was then taking care of them and they had nobody else plus he represented wonderful help, so that he said that, if those 600,000 Phoenicians, who were white, were seen walking away and his people got to know they were free, there would be revolt and his people could demand that he killed them, when he would not know what to do, so that they had to free another 600,000, this time of his subrace, since equal numbers would make them feel OK.

The Nubian witness would also have scared the Nubian slaves further: he would have said that if the Arabs found out they had been slaves in Egypt, they would be returned to the condition of slaves or would be killed. He then would make a point: the Phoenicians could not be trusted and those were never in slavery in the white world because they did not enslave those of the same skin color there even though they could enslave negros. The Nubian witness told the Nubians that the whites could not be trusted, that they shouldn't converse with them because otherwise they would despise or reject them, as it had happened when the Nubian wife shared her stories with the Phoenician woman: that if the Phoenicians despised them, they would certainly be in slavery again.

When both groups meet, the Nubian witness pulled the Phoenician witness to the side and said they had to go to Arabia together, as leaders of those people, and announce to the Arabs that they were coming. This because they didn't know what would happen and the Arabs could think of enslaving them again. The Nubian then would have said that he, the Phoenician, would be all right but they, the negros, could not be. The Phoenician then, as always - in his infinite kindness - agreed. As they were walking to Arabia, the Nubian witness organized with the Phoenician witness that he would speak and the Phoenician witness would interpret because that sort of communication was very important and would determine the way they would be treated in Arabia. The decision was then that the Phoenician witness would exclusively interpret his message - without saying anything - just because otherwise they could treat his subrace as slaves, he said, like it was that first contact that would define if they would again be slaves or not. The Nubian then did not speak Arab, as said before. As we guessed, the satanic gave a glimpse of memory and 'Braganca'/the devil then appears saying exactly that.

After they reach Arabia and are speaking to the Arabs – to the person that they have identified as leader - the Nubian witness starts: we are coming with 1,200,000 people to your nation. Half of them are black and half of them are white. Yet, we are coming from the same place and are one people.

They then leave Arabia to come back to the meeting point from before, where they left their bunches. The Nubian witness then speaks only to his people: he says, in their language (which the Phoenician could not speak. They communicated through their common language, which was Egyptian), that they both went to Arabia but only the white man spoke, had told him that things had to be that way because the Phoenicians were free everywhere that was whites' lands, but the negroes could be in slavery in those places instead. He couldn't understand a word because he doesn't speak Arabic. He thought the white was behaving in an odd manner and they both were staring at him in a suspicious manner, so that he looked around and found a black there who seemed to be paying attention to the conversation. He then asked the white to speak to the black before they left and he then asked what they had said. The black said that the white had said that 600,000 people would be arriving soon in Arabia and they were all coming from his Country. The Nubian witness then completed: He said Ra spoke to him and told him that the other 600,000 had to be killed so that they could be free. They then get convinced that they need to be killed so that they can be free and determine that each one of them will kill one, the price for their freedom. That is when they plot and manage to make the Phoenicians all go to the border of the sea, probably using some excuse of the type 'that they are going to help the blacks somehow'. After they are all at the border, each one dumps one and all is done.

The Nubian witness then invents a story to the Arab both witnesses (the black and the white) had spoken to earlier on: he then says that, upon walking back to where they had left their people, the Phoenician had started to think that they would be too many entering Arabia at once, that perhaps that was not adequate and that is then when they made the decision of splitting. The Phoenician would then have gone in the direction of the sea with his people and he imagined all went well, since they didn't hear from them anymore. The story of the bible the satanic called Christian never happened then, the one involving Moses. That story was probably created by the negro that decided to write about all spiritual beliefs the negroes had and leave his book in the library that is closest to the ocean in Arabia together with the other books he found there, which he took to express the spiritual beliefs of other peoples (the Phoenicians and the other Africans (satanic bible).

[66] brings the title 'Templo de Umbanda Triangulo das 7 Linhas Divinas' (Temple of Umbanda Triangle of the 7 Divine Lines). 7 is their number, so that this one is ideal link to their culture, we think. [67] brings something about such a triangle but we think it is all deceit once more. Umbanda is not to heal or help heal. We believe it is all about witchery, therefore satanic stuff. They have Allah in the book about Umbanda and say that Allah is god ([67], p. 11: 'ALLAH ou (or) ALAH ou (or) NLA ou (or) ALAH-NLA ou (or) LA significa (means) DEUS (god), DIVINO (divine)' [39], p.18: Allah is god, that is, the almighty father). The satanic negro men call all deities 'god' to blur distinctions in our minds and make us think their deity is Our God as well. They also here talk about El and present it again as the boss of all other satanic deities ([67], p. 12 'EL – (god) Deus (EL ou (or) L significa (means) Deus (god) em (in) Vatan, Zend, Sânscrito (Sanskrit), etc.). The simple presence of Allah and El as gods in Umbanda proves that both the bible the satanic called Christian and the bible the satanic called Islamic were written by them. We once more observe that they use the name of our only god, which is God, as an umbrella name for all their deities, which is also what they did in the bible they called Christian. Yet, it is obviously the case that Our God does not belong to Umbanda in any possible sense, so that those are demons instead of Our God even because there is only one God for human kind and that is ours. We have proven before that Allah is the moon for the negro, so that is one of their deities. El must be yet another natural element. [70] says that 'both Ba'al and El were associated with the bull in Ugaritic texts, as they symbolized both strength and fertility' and that 'Baal is a child of El'. Saying that Our God is the same as El or Allah is therefore calling Our God either an animal or a thing (a satellite), which is top blasphemy and that is all a satanic brotherhood/sisterhood person would like to do to us, Christians, get us to commit blasphemy, that is for sure.

[68] is the right one. Exu is the name for the devil in Umbanda, as for carioca knowledge that they pass. [69] is one of the many sources that discuss this and, once more, they deny what we know to be true but they give a description of the characteristics of exu that lead us to conclude he can only be the devil. [69]: 'Para exu não existe o mais ou menos, ou é certo, ou é errado. Muitas vezes o certo nos machuca, nos agride e, por isso, exu é associado com o diabo, como um espírito que nos faz mal' ("For exu, there is no so-so; it is either right or wrong. Many times, the right hurts us, feels like an aggression, and because of that, exu is associated with the devil, as a spirit that does evil to us'). [69] is associating Exu with 'the fixer', but that is exactly who the devil is for Christianity, as far as how heaven would like to see his acts: he was an angel of Our God, according to the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, so it can only be that he fixes. Yet, his intentions cannot be holy, since he can only aim at putting everyone on earth in hell, in the hope that heaven takes away his incumbency and therefore allows him to once more live there instead of in hell. It is either that nobody sins—which, until we, Twins of God, came to the world, was seen as an impossible thing (now we have Our God's Brainwashing waiting to be implemented)—or everyone does, since, to close hell, either heaven decides to accept those there into heaven for having absolutely nobody to go with, or there is nobody who would end up in it.

Exu is either the devil or demons in their usage of the Portuguese language, so that the negro, when using the Brazilian language in Rio, uses exu for both. Sometimes they say, 'ta com um exu danado' ('you are with a damn exu'), which means demon. [68] is describing what we could call The Universe of Exu from Umbanda, therefore all that relates to the devil in Umbanda, which they say is a branch of Umbanda, meaning other branches could not be about the devil or only about it. The researcher, who can only be a white Christian female, regardless of whether the person is an original or replacement (the spirit of the original woman spoke through the usurper if this has not been written by the righteous owner of the ID) - we believe it was written by the righteous owner of the ID, when the book at most was kept on the shelf for a while and later on published by the usurper - says, on page 19, that the 3 elements of the Umbanda from Exu are nature (which they associate with the figure of the Caboclo, who is considered to be an indigenous person who is active, indomitable, proud, with upright head, and dominates nature—particularly the bush, waterfalls, water, and quarries), civilization (which they associate with the Preto Velho, or Ancient Black, who would be the negro who was a slave, has a bent body because of old age, speaks broken English, and smokes a pipe) and wilderness (which they associate with exu, so the devil. This force would directly oppose that of civilization, would be the marginal world, peripheral).

This could then be the actual triangle vertices for the flag of China. We guessed and the satanic gave us the memory glimpse, when Leinha confirmed exactly that. In this universe, it makes sense hating civilizations, since they associate those with slavery. It also makes sense choosing to be exu/devil, since the other option is nature and they would then have to live like the aboriginals/in the bush, so basically where their ancestry comes from. They then choose to set hell on earth or make our world be the world of exu, where they are free and don't have to live in nature, opposing being in slavery to maximum, therefore destroying all elements of civilization. It is interesting to notice that Patricia Birman ('O que e umbanda') is cited as reference for this summary of description of the world of exu, or the world of the devil, when they put the child together with the Preto Velho. We then infer that this Patricia is definitely a usurper – therefore a satanic transgender - just because she managed to include the child as if they were 'someone' for umbanda instead of them being at most victim, so things like child-spouse, food or sacrifice to their exu and its associates.

The Khadi can only have been something that annoyed the Indian women, like they must have noticed the negro men started usurping there and the first evidence on them noticing that was that the negro men heard their remarks on their khadis, which are obviously inferior fabric, but the Indians like nice fabric. The Khadis are also long, which makes them uncomfortable for the men to wear and makes the men look more like women, which has to make those men less attractive to women. In this case, we know this person, figuring as Patricia, is doing the Khadi (associated with the name Khadija [11]) thing: 'she' is trying to impose African culture to us, whites - thus Christians - by advertising it as something child-friendly, like 'she' cannot fit a woman there, but 'she' can fit a child, so she did.

The transgenders inside of me complained at this stage: that we had to investigate first, prove through pictures that she is such before asserting such things. This is just a blog post and we have no doubts. Even so, since Our Lord Jesus is within us - it is my twin in me and he in us - we tried but there are no pictures available. Please go after that yourself if that is also your need. We don't know much about umbanda but we do think we know enough to tell that there is definitely no child that is seen as supernatural force or an element that should be considered²⁵. Jee, this is something really really dark but Our Lord Jesus Christ and children are full of light - specially the whites, thus Christian, children if the satanic let them be, without their things, such as the 666. We now understand why the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood members like Rio so much: the people from Rio went all in on their naked people shaking, which is something we only see in aboriginals. We also think the Asians used chopsticks mostly when they were of old age and had fragile teeth, but the satanic, from usurping their people, put everyone to eat with chopsticks everywhere, maybe that being something only for those Asians who left the Asian places where they 'colonized,' since they then usurp those and are left eating with their African things, basically, since we saw them in pictures and elsewhere using similar stuff to eat from pots and so on in ²⁵ After we guessed, the satanic gave us a memory glimpse and there Leinha is seen telling us precisely that: that the 'woman' could not fit the woman in but she managed to include the child, so clearly saying that it is not there for real.

[11]. If there is any chance the Asians who are not old still eat with normal cutlery in Asia when having a choice, then there are natural ones left, we theorize.

One more extract from the book: 'médium que recebe determinado espírito (medium who receives a certain spirit) possui características daquele orixá (has got characteristics of that orixa), que é o "dono da cabeça" do médium (who is the 'owner of the head' of the medium).' Here they talk about 'owner of the head of someone else being an 'orixa'. 'Cada orixá tem um exu à sua disposição (Each orixa has got an exu at their disposal), que serve de intermediário na comunicação entre os santos e o ser humano (who serves as an intermediary in the communication between the saints and human beings). Os exus seriam "escravos", "capangas" e "capachos" dos santos (Exus are 'slaves', 'henchmen', and 'doormats' of the saints). Fariam o trabalho sujo que o santo não faz (They do the dirty work that the saint doesn't do)'. They see the people who command their bodies/lives and heads as these things, obviously and trivially, so orixas. Each orixa has a demon available 24/7 and these demons mediate communication between saints and humans, so that it makes perfect sense for them to have the demons doing anything they like in order to be able to pass what is inside of the head of a Christian to them, isn't it?

We here also notice that is impossible to deny that they created the saints, since they have these figures called 'pai de santo' and 'filho de santo' in their umbanda ([71], they then call it candomblé. Perplexity says that 'Umbanda is a distinct Afro-Brazilian religion that developed in Brazil in the early 20th century. While it incorporates elements of Candomblé, it is also strongly influenced by Spiritism, Roman Catholicism, and Indigenous Brazilian beliefs, making it a unique syncretic tradition rather than simply an adaptation of Candomblé'. Once more, those are not heavenly figures and Our God, heavens and Our Jesus are against all that. Let no human being be told to be above others in terms of spirit that be not by the word of Our Lord and Commander, Jesus Christ (known by this earthly name until the negro satanic men empower us enough and we can finally express Christianity in the right way).

We notice that there are no women involved in any of these 3 realms, since they use the word 'preto' not 'preta' in Preto Velho and they use the word 'caboclo', not 'cabocla' in Caboclo. Also from seeing on TV and other vehicles in Rio, we are sure they are all men - all of them, including exu. Other lines of umbanda have women, but not this one, so that, once more, those who are part of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood obviously come from this sort of black African/negro subrace, which adores the devil.

In this case, the triangle of the Cuban flag is sorted and the eye is the all-seeing element, the I Am of the negro, as explained before, but it is there symbolized by the star, since the eye would not look OK - something of a mental instead of a serious Country. The eye is then represented by its extreme luminosity and radiance, just like the eyes of the people who live in paradise (Ethiopian bible) appear to be, so that we now know those are the eyes that all-see and that is indeed what the negro thinks is the actual reality, rather than it being our idea, which we gave to whoever was in my head for Matrix (us experiencing hallucination, thinking we eat finest things and it is all weird, opaque and repulsive in reality). That then also explains the eye thing in the Suffolk bases attacks of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood that Leinha and 'Nelson' organized.

About Cuba, Co-pilot: 'Cuba became communist following the Cuban Revolution (1953–1959), led by Fidel Castro and his 26th of July Movement against the dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista. Initially, Castro did not openly declare a communist ideology, but after taking power in 1959, his government gradually aligned with Marxist-Leninist principles.

Key events in Cuba's shift to communism:

- 1959: Castro overthrows Batista and establishes a revolutionary government.
- 1960: Cuba nationalizes U.S.-owned businesses, leading to tensions with the United States.
- 1961: Castro officially declares Cuba a socialist state and aligns with the Soviet Union.
- 1965: The Communist Party of Cuba is formally established as the ruling party.

Cuba remained a one-party communist state, even after the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991. Today, the Communist Party of Cuba continues to govern under Marxist-Leninist principles.'

We are then sure the righteous owner of the ID Fidel Castro is the revolutionary, so that he was an idealist - a good person - and wanted to improve life in Cuba. He destroyed dictatorship and probably applied democracy in all he could following that but then the negro quickly usurped and came up with their communism, taking advantage of the charisma of the righteous owner of the ID but that was also to pretend that was Fidel's original objective, so that they pass rhetoric involving the figure of the Abu in Cuba having chosen that and therefore they pass the message that communism should be the best choice for the Cubans.

We always found it very weird when people came up with 'left' and 'right' and they referred to politics, like what is that? At a certain height of life, we had understood that left was communism and right was democracy. At another stage, we had understood that left was whoever was not in power - so the opposition - and right was whoever was in power. [68]: 'Existem entidades que pertencem à linha da "direita" e outros à linha da

We understand each time that we, who are not negro men in some state of being - so transgender, white skin, whatever language - are definitely nothing and nobody, like they basically speak to each other and through us, since we see 'whites' using those terms in public discourse at waste, in the media and so on.

From here we can prove that Islam was always an imposition and never a free choice of anywhere where it has been established, for otherwise it would not have the negro symbols on their flags: it was always a result of a major attack of the negro over those peoples. The same happened with all other tyrannic regimens, apart from monarchy, which seems to have existed before the negro (highly tyrannic thing). We would then probably be able to prove the negro interference with the national order through studying things like that, so the flags, but also history of customs of the ancient and native peoples, so the chopsticks thing. Pinochet (Attachment no. 8) is yet another tyrant who committed atrocities: we once read that he put 400 Chileans to bleed to death in a stadium, apparently randomly chosen people. ‘Pinochet’ then ordered that their hands were cut and the people of Chile then had to witness their slow death - as in Rome, when we are sure all that festival of atrocities, so lions against people, and, in Spain, bulls against people were all things that the negro got to perpetrate against the native peoples by means of usurpation. That would, of course, be the negro satanic men, member of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. We then theorize that those to cut those hands - just like it was with Nazism - were also members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood for the maximum enjoyment of the satanic negro men but also for safety, since the Christians - thus natural whites - would be very likely to not comply with such an order. From their AI (Co-pilot), we get a drop: 'The National Stadium in Santiago, Chile was used as a detention center during Augusto Pinochet's dictatorship following the 1973 coup that overthrew President Salvador Allende. Historians estimate that between 20,000 and 40,000 people were imprisoned in the stadium, where many were tortured and executed. The stadium became a symbol of repression, and one of its most infamous cases was the murder of singer-songwriter Víctor Jara, who was detained and killed there.' Here the satanic, speaking through their AIs (which would have been their gift to those they made usurp, like maximum evolution they could 'award' them ('finally' relaying advancement we whites got for them, probably decades ago through some slavery scheme), their century token or something, so that the 'whites' now got AIs, AIs everywhere that speak to them, such as Co-pilot, and answer their questions, however with AI Qaeda science/research, as pointed out), reveals something but they then make the impact on the spirit of those who are reading resume to one person (you will notice your spirit/mind retains just the last token, so that one case, one man, while it is saying 40,000 people lost their lives there, basically, instead. They study all that), still a male and artist, who is probably one of them, a negro man usurping by the time he dies there. We are sure about the 400 and it was in the press of Brazil as a major scandal (as said, best press in the world as for amount of information relayed, depth of investigation and all else, up to 2000, when we come. Yet very superficial compared to how much we would think press should be giving, so that nothing like truly Christian, but that probably has to do also with the sources available to humanity, so with satanization of the sources. As said, we need all that, starting with God's Brainwashing, to start fixing things) when we saw it. We certainly never forgot such a thing. Definitely terror. We imagine all Christians, therefore natural whites, would be imagining themselves in that stadium, under that monster/tyrant, after getting the news.

We concluded they attack whoever chooses civilization, thus slavery, as for their terms/spirit: 'Rogerio de Oliveira' asked me if I would not agree, please, with living with him in the middle of the bush, isolated from everything, only with natural elements around at a certain stage, with me feeling, in my soul, that that was the only way he could envisage being able to not betray me and that is what he really wanted to do, whatever number that 'Rogerio' had. That was then becoming a 'caboclo' in the triad of possibilities of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. We then confirm what this is for them (after guessing): they were told, all the time, growing up, just because of the mandatory weekly attendance to their 'church' - perhaps even several times a week - that that is all a negro can be in life, so one of those three: caboclo, preto velho or exu. That would then be the representation of the maximum spiritual evolution of the negro for them, in case they split the universe into three realms: wilderness, civilization and supernatural. The negro then, if doing the right thing, should end up his life as 'king of one of the realms' and those three figures then represent what the king looks and sounds like. They then probably replace the members of the brotherhood/sisterhood who they think are lagging behind in terms of becoming such a figure, so say, if the person cannot master fishing/command fish and is doing the 'caboclo track', they could be replaced with someone who 'finally' can do it, we imagine. That is then the main reason as to why they cannot stop reaching target in terms of crimes quota despite being with us: they could lag behind and get killed/replaced. In this case, Leinha must be doing the exu track while 'Nelson' is doing the wilderness one. 'Rogerio' probably wanted to do the wilderness track because we then can exclude society, as he said, therefore he is rid of perpetrating against societal members and, for lacking options, is also rid of having to betray me. Besides, competition is low, like very few would choose that environment over civilization, so that there would be lowest likelihood that he would get killed/replaced.

It was from using 'Rogerio's' token, as for how it impacted on our spirit, that I had the idea of saving 'Nelson' - the 'Nelson' who called upon feeling that his life was under threat - by advising him to get his girlfriend and move to the bush, then stay there for a while. Our spirit understood that was the only way the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood wouldn't take our lives or mess up with us or force him to betray me or anything. That 'Nelson' still died, as far we understood, so that even though that may save the life of those who are not under threat, it is probably the case that, once the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood sets its mind on the thing, other efforts are required to stop it while we are not on top. We noticed, as explained before, that, if we can find yet another member who likes us - and they bother - those usually succeed in stopping the determination the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood has of 'sending us' (the negro 'send' for the Indians from the Suffolk base, through invisible laser).

Our thoughts, on civilization, also get confirmed by 'Nelson's' story: that he couldn't enjoy, as if there were people watching. We noticed that, during these 3 years and 3 months plus, whenever I am enjoying something that has to do with civilization (and we enjoy only those items most of the time or all the time), I am more severely attacked, so, for instance, whenever I turn my aircon on and I am finding it pleasant, that the temperature is now really warm or cool, they make the fire alarm go off (this is an Al Qaeda apartment, like all places where I have lived so far and most places should also be such, as said before, so whenever there is a blockage we cannot deal with, for instance, it is them pressing buttons). On other occasions, they made me have eye allergy as a reaction to the heater, like they would press buttons and make the eye go dry, cry and burn each time the aircon was on and they still took long time to stop doing that even after I realized it was about that and stopped using it, despite the weather. I feel comfortable sleeping belly up, like 'Nilza' said is best for health (and I saw 'Braganca/the devil doing that too), like I find that way more relaxing and it seems to be the least harmful position for the bones and flesh. They then put a program in my 666, so that I can never sleep like that anymore. That was after I thought to myself - and therefore was kinda teaching those people inside of me - that that is really healthy and good. Other times, I would be happily eating with knife and fork and they would press buttons to make me hit myself with the fork as I was thinking I could do that well and that it felt good. Twin in me and Our Lord Jesus in us helped, since I almost ended up having a serious accident with the fork in the eye and other parts of the body back then. I now cannot eat properly with knife and fork anymore: they reduced me to an animal or something more negro/African in those regards.

We think Leinha is the only one who is anti-civilization in our Al Qaeda family when it comes to determining/supporting our ways of living (so mine, Elsie's. We had previously said she was the only one who liked living like that but we now realize how much she used her car and a special water filter, ozonizer, so that that is only in what comes to our lives instead) and that coincides with her being the only one that remained as possible aggressor/blocker, with us having 99% of certainty that she is the one who destroyed our entire body and head (through the hands of a cluster of multiples from the satanic brotherhood, though, the same ones she used to impair/disable 'Jayme Ricci Pinheiro' (who got replaced a few times), including skills even with things like breathing under water or doing home gym. She is the only one who insists that her type of people are cariocas, so that they must all be from the same subrace in Africa (we have already stated that that should be the case, when we produced some circumstantial). Yet, we believe we ourselves advised her to pick them, like it is always the options that are available that determine our choice, like there was no better choice we could see. We also chose the prostitutes from Rio when given the choice regarding 'what marginal' from their group would form our group, basically, as explained before, like who we are going to administer if following the crime/satanic path of theirs

Today (22/05/2025) we raised with the following information coming through the Holy Ghost: they all adore the dead, so exactly what we concluded before, the love for stillness. We once analysed a crime of 'Nelson' - in one of our blog posts (blog Crime, with Blogger, Marcia Pinheiro) – where he killed the man and then kept him in bed with him, later on even drilling a hole in his body and putting his penis in. We now think it might be the same story as it was with the nun, so that the person practicing those atrocities might have been another, not necessarily him. That is in alignment with our suspicion: that ‘Trevor Skinner’ worked as a nurse in the morgue area so that he could have sex with corpses (given his smell). That also makes sense of having corpses accumulating in holes, as we saw in the holocausts (actual and remake) of theirs, like they could go there to have their rites and others. We connect this to Egypt, just because of the way they tried to keep things for the deceased inside of their pyramids of death: they used to put all their personal belongings and wealth items inside of those. Whoever thinks like that obviously believes that the person is more alive after death or equally alive, we theorize. That makes us think that, instead of the appearance we saw there, in the USA, under the Wallstreet park subway entrance, for the place where they store the people in phase out for future replacements, they have them all standing or spread, more like what they put in our head as if it were the little kids doing with the people there. That matches the cartoon that we think they came up with, as for main characteristic of the character, ‘mandrake’. We do think they give a ‘mandrake’ in the people around when they enter jail complexes, as we saw before. That also matches the observations about ‘Baby Consuelo’s’ song, the one saying that she is ‘telurica’: if she loves the earth (we believe we once checked on that definition and it said like that, that teluricos loved earth), then she is a walking corpse. That also matches the African adoration for birds, ants and trees (things that one could be sensing after death if still remaining alive). That also matches our impression of those figures from the start, the walk next to the masonry in Sydney (dead alive, at some stage we even said the options were reduced as for what they could be and the strongest possibility was ‘the resurrected’). That also matches our assertions regarding their love for the ‘non-reactive mind’: the dead certainly have it. That also makes sense of their capacity of thinking of our heads, of people who are alive, as a free and universal database for their people. That also matches what they created for schizophrenia, after creating the own disease: catatonia. That also matches Leinha putting ‘Braganca’/the devil to sleep inside of a coffin as test to enter the masonry (without him knowing it was her doing that, with him believing it was the guys from the masonry ordering that he did that on their own). That also matches the personal taste of ‘Braganca’/the devil the only time we observed him sleeping/in bed during the night (he then covered his entire body with the sheet, as if he were an Egyptian mummy). That also matches their taste for bed: preferably even the floor, as for ‘Nelson’. All really rigid, like wood, surfaces where we ourselves would never be able to really sleep, like it is impossible, to hard. That also matches the story of ‘Lea Maria’ involving the ‘caixa de gordura’ in Ipanema, a place where I understood she would keep the corpses of those she killed, so that, according to her, she could nibble once in a while – yet, doesn’t the flesh go off?). That also matches the only time I watched Leinha having sex (with ‘Ross’ in Enmore): he was lying down, belly up, as rigid as wood and didn’t move ever. That also matches them having to kill us if they ever feel love for us, like the more they love us, the more with ‘Ra’ we will be or something.

All colors in the flag should imply something as well, so please go through the task of examining these flags using what we pass here and please feel free to build your own paper based on this information, since we will not be pursuing this any further. Please mention us as a source. May Our God bless those who do what we ask immediately.

8) Augusto Pinochet

[72] [73], 1984 [74], circa 1974 [75], 1935-1951

The 4 pictures above correspond to 4 very different men: nose and chin comparisons should make you agree with us. The ears that protrude in [72] and [74] bring the same effect as the folds on the face of [73], so that they are all negros and therefore the ID became an usurpation experience for the satanic brotherhood at a certain stage, trivially before the atrocities started.

Co-pilot points at these steps in his military career before power:’

- 1936 – Graduated from the Chilean Military Academy
- 1943 – Joined the Chilean Army, serving in various regiments
- 1968 – Promoted to Brigadier General

- 1971 – Appointed Commander of Santiago Army Garrison
- 1972 – Became General Chief of Staff
- 1973 – Appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Chilean Army
- 1973 – Led the military coup against Salvador Allende

We then asked if General Chief of Staff was higher than Commander and it said it is, so that this all looks like normal progression in the career, just the coup is what comes across as possibly weird. Co-pilot says he even had nicknames for underperforming in the years preceding the conclusion of secondary school but that may be part of the satanization of his biography by the satanic brotherhood, so that it doesn't mean that is the truth at all. We see that he went from Commander to General Chief and Commander again in a very short interval of time, which probably means brilliance and that wouldn't be part of the satanic brotherhood members' possibilities, so that that must still have been the righteous owner of the ID and he must not have underperformed during primary or secondary school ever.

He probably lost his life in 1973, like, if nobody can find a reason for him to be a person of revolutions, then he lost his life before the coup. It seems that Chile was a democracy before the coup (Co-pilot), so that it does not make sense, for a virtuous person, not to go with the people. If he were with the people, he would not need to decree dictatorship, so that this is not the righteous owner, it is already the marginal.

We still consulted Co-pilot:

'There is evidence that civilian groups and political factions supported the idea of a coup against Salvador Allende, though direct letters or explicit requests to Augusto Pinochet himself are less documented. Some key points:

- Business and Elite Support – Wealthy Chileans and business leaders feared Allende's socialist policies and backed efforts to destabilize his government.
- Right-Wing Groups – Organizations like Patria y Libertad engaged in violent opposition and reportedly encouraged military action.
- Foreign Influence – U.S. intelligence reports indicated that some Chilean civilians were involved in efforts to push for a coup.
- Public Protests – Some anti-Allende demonstrations called for military intervention, reflecting civilian frustration.'

If he were the righteous owner of the ID at the time of the coup, he would like the best to happen to his Country and people. Therefore, he would have restored democracy soon after taking power and would have called for elections.

Co-pilot:

'After Augusto Pinochet's coup in 1973, he did not hold immediate public consultations. Instead, his regime imposed authoritarian rule, suppressing political opposition and restricting democratic processes.'

We are then sure the righteous owner of the ID lost his precious and unique human incarnation at most in 1973, before the first talks about the coup happened.

9) Satanic brotherhood member playing 'Andrew Clarskon', unknown usurpation number

All of a sudden, we remembered having had our head consulted by this man, who was then playing 'Andrew Clarkson' in North Melbourne, Melbourne (Erskine St), Australia, when he consulted us (like, now we realize that). He wasn't happy playing 'the role' the satanic brotherhood had assigned to him - so that of 'Andrew Clarkson' - anymore. We guessed and the satanic then gave the memory glimpse: a true Christian managed to have access to him and they then had a conversation. That was a man and therefore he must have been a native who was still the righteous owner of his ID - thus white - by the time he spoke to him. We now realized that this conversation could only have happened at the church that 'Andrew Clarkson' (probably the one that came after this one) took me to, the one he claimed to attend: that was the Lutheran church. We then realized that it could only be the case that this one spoke German, since 'my' 'Andrew' would only enter and get out after the mass, which is in German (the church is the one in the CBD of Melbourne), and we did think about that for a time and concluded the reason could only be that he didn't speak German, which was later on confirmed by him. We then conclude this one DID speak German, what is a great achievement in terms of findings because we can then tell a lot more. First of all, even though the righteous owner of the ID did attend the Lutheran church services, the satanic brotherhood does not give its usurpers the language of the mass, which does make sense, since that could potentially make the individual literally see Our Lord. The satanic told me, however (I now remember also that, after concluding the usurper could not get more languages than the strictly needed for the usurpation), that 'my' 'Andrew' was given a choice and he said that he did not really want to attend church, so that it was better if he did not understand what they are saying (Leinha would have told me this).

Basically, the 'Andrew' from this picture said that he had already asked the satanic brotherhood (not that he said the name of things to us back then) and they would not release him from playing the assigned role, so that he was stuck and they could kill him if he refused to play the role.

He then asked me what he could be doing, however he did not include the information about the bug and, for some reason, when they consult my head, I take those things to be natural almost all the time or all the time and don't consciously acknowledge that I am bugged myself. I then advised him to go to the most different culture and place he could think of as that could only be his best chances of not being caught/murdered. He then did not hesitate and moved to Germany, which is the only reason why he was killed there and put in the camp there, so that both 'Nelson' and Leinha lied on this one. Yet, after we went through this mental struggle, thinking they both lied, the satanic gave me the memory glimpse and there everything was confirmed (I had the intuition his feet had been chopped for them to be able to swap shoes, since the body would be rigid like wood after death): 'Nelson' then says that indeed he had to chop his foot to be able to dress the German shoes, which were not his. Even though 'Nelson' got some of the same size as his feet, the rigidity of the feet made it impossible to dress them without doing something like that, so that this man went to Germany to escape the satanic brotherhood and took his things with him. I had advised him not to dress anything Australian (not sure I knew it was Australia, but I said for him to not dress anything typical) in the place in order to make identification harder. He then was probably dressing the German shoes and 'Nelson' had to chop when dressing his Australian boot. 'Nelson' did that to say he was from Australia. The picture involving the Australian shoe then happened after the one involving the German one. Even though Leinha says it was a choice, we are sure it is not and the key-element here is that this one knew something before he usurped while most don't: He knew German. In this way, he could live there normally. Were it a choice, being both satanic, they would both refuse to learn German for the same reason, isn't it? The satanic would not let Christianity be spread or inculcated in the mind of its followers, just because that is indeed 'the way', Our Lord Jesus Christ's ways.

Usurpers learn exclusively what is required for the role they will play: as pointed out before, they say they can give up to 'one gift' of the device to usurpers, so one extra thing, nothing else. Some members are more prized than others, so that 'Murillo', for instance, got two gifts: eloquence in Portuguese and super human strength in the arms. 'Braganca' got calligraphy and eloquence in Portuguese. It then looks like 2 gifts for those at the top.

We then realize that the native righteous owner of ID male who spoke to him had the effect of making him have contact with his original soul (he broke the spell of the satanic over the man in the picture: the brainwashing was nullified and he could then feel his own soul, so his connection to Our Lord, Jesus Christ, through the Holy Ghost, thus to his path to heavens) and, all of a sudden, he was in heavens through the Holy Ghost, when he then felt everything, as they say it is after our death: that we go to the presence of Our Lord Jesus Christ and we feel the wrong in all we did, when all the scenes of our lives where we did wrong pass in front of us, and the verdict is then always accepted as fair by us, regardless of whether we go to heavens/its path or hell.

He then thought all he was doing was not right, as he told me: that he did not want to deceive society anymore.

Well, because of his German-speaking quality, we managed to find out where in Africa the man was from: he was from Namibia.

Co-pilot: 'Yes! Namibia has the largest German-speaking population in Africa, with around 20,000 native speakers. This is due to its history as German South West Africa, a colony from 1884 to 1915. German remains a recognized language, used in media, education, and cultural events. Other places with historical German influence include Tanzania, Cameroon, and Togo, though German is not widely spoken there today.'

Because of his case, we found out that usurpers are coming from everywhere in Africa, not really only from Nubia. They must however prefer the unknowledgeable for this sort of reason²⁶ but also because those who study would have experienced the 'higher-truth' feel of Descartes and whoever knows what heavens is (the feel of higher truth) does not want to get out of it, so that the person becomes addicted to always chasing higher truths, since that gives them 'the lift'. One of the other things that incontestably lead to 'being in heavens' is the ethereal orgasm, which can only be achieved through an Our God's Coupleship, as explained before.

10) Blogger, Marcia Pinheiro, 'Dole: A Negro Thing in Rome', date: 5/2/25

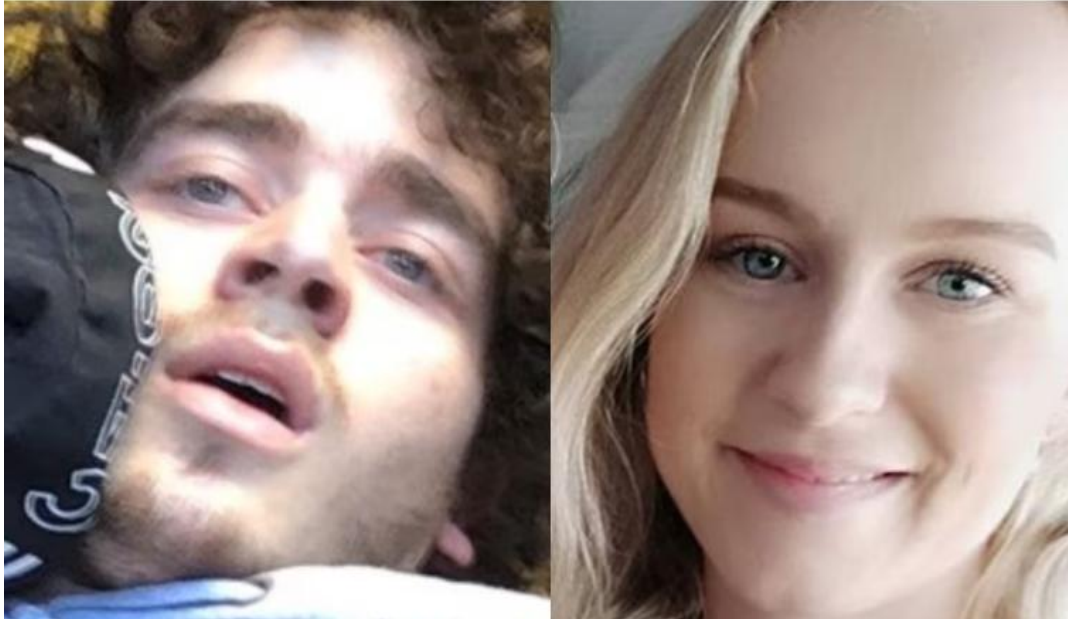

[78]: dole is then 'do-le', which is 'do' ('just do it', from Nike, so just perpetrate) and 'read' ('le' in Portuguese). That then means that, when they had to work to pay their own expenses, they could not study, and now, with the government giving what was needed to live (since they usurp property and therefore didn't need the government to give that and perhaps bills for services, such as electricity, didn't exist, so perhaps all services of that type were free), they could 'finally' study. That is then how the Romans got exterminated: they had time and therefore could perpetrate more. This means that the 'dole' in Australia served the same purpose, which is then why they succeeded in exterminating the native Australians/righteous owners of native Australian ID/original white subrace of Australia too (as for what they say. Sometimes they declare their target as if it has already been achieved, actually lots of times, so that there is also a chance things are not as bad as they seem but there is very little likelihood that is the case here). That probably means they all perpetrated, so that perhaps the negro satanic men start all and open way for the others (since the satanic would eat flesh, therefore would not need the food provided by the government. Only the non-cannibals would need that. They needed it so much that they created confusion in the cue or whatever that was). One of the things is that it is probably the case none of the Christian countries used to take African migrants but, by becoming government (as for ID), they could get all that and others, such as the dole.

Look at what ChatGPT says (etymology of the word 'dole'): 'Origin: Old English: "dāl" — meaning "part," "share," or "portion." Related to the verb "dælan", meaning "to divide" or "to distribute." From Proto-Germanic "dailiz" (same root as the modern word "deal").' The satanic brotherhood/sisterhood then always provides an official account that deceives people well, like the formation of the word happens as a consequence of the food being provided in Rome instead of what it is, which is why they love usurping researchers. May Our God bless those who do what we ask immediately.

²⁶ We actually now recall, after we guessed, since the satanic then gave us a memory glimpse: Leinha said that she regretted having picked, in other words, that 'Andrew', so the Namibian one (Attachment no. 9), since he had studies. As we, Twins of God, said before, any person who has experienced the sensation of being in heavens while on earth never wants to get out of it, so that they naturally turn their spirits in the right direction instead of to hells and studying in the socratic way, therefore deepening ourselves in the practice of placid contemplation, leads to us having those moments, of immersion in the Holy Ghost and therefore of experiencing a taste of heavens. She explicitly referred to the place of the pickup, so that we understand she usually picked usurpers from somewhere else, which leads us to once more confirm that they must pick those always from Nubia, where we infer people are the most ignorant, like also ever, but the most ignorant in Africa.

11) Mert Ney

The two ‘Mert Neys’ above are different, even though it is pretty hard to compare them, since the angles are completely different too: skin and lip colors are remarkably different and we can see that straight away. With more difficulty, we realize that the chin is different ([77]’s chin is less wide). With a bit more effort, we see that the nose is also different ([80]’s is larger).

Why the satanic had this concern, of coming up with [80] after we finished dealing with these crimes? We believe it is so that the other marginals, so the other members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, are deceived as to whether they may use them like that or not. We believe the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood wants to pass rhetoric here: saying that who they blame for the crimes they organize is always a person who is naturally white. Yet, we can see that [80] has Al Qaeda eyes that are blue and the other ‘Mert Neys’ from [77], who were the only ones available online when we produced [77], have dark eyes, so that the righteous owner of this ID obviously had dark eyes too. The girl in [80] has Al Qaeda eyes too and we analysed this case before, so that they were both usurpers, thus members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood. The Al Qaeda eyes one only gets through 666, which is exclusive property of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood so far, despite all our attempts to get hold of at least one of them and their entire design, rather than just knowing it is either a satellite mobile circuit in miniature and simplified or a radio circuit in miniature and simplified (radio enters via hole in the skull that they cover with some material that lasts forever and feels like a mole and mobile enters via ear orifice). We observe that the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood is able to make people have the beard and hair in any way they design in the computer for a while. Since at most the remake of the holocaust they have been able to design body hair (they make the boy who appears naked in the picture we put in [18] have no hair whatsoever and we think we are sure it is all via 666).

12) Attacks involving nuns

Tadea Benz

[91]: that is the criminal case involving Tadea Benz and our Al Qaeda brother, 'Nelson', was involved, together with our Al Qaeda sister, Leinha, in the planning of this sequence of atrocities even though only 'Nelson' was physically involved in the actual atrocities. 'Nelson' took a negro who figures as a negro to the convent in order for him to perpetrate and he collected this negro and took him to 'his' place after they finished perpetrating. 'Nelson' also collected an innocent man figuring as white from 'his' place on phase out, apparently from 'his' bed, and put him in his Macquarie spaceship (which was parked on the top of the convent during all the action) to then take him to the front of the window of the 'nun' (she was also a usurper, so a negro man changed into a satanic transgender, never an actual nun, so again no formation or faith or anything), still in phase out, where he would wait to have his hand rubbed against the knife that the negro figuring as negro had left under the bed for 'Nelson', which is the reason the window was left open. 'Nelson' then put the knife, which now was marked with his DNA, under the bed of the nun. This phased out man was moved by 'Nelson' so that he would be seen getting out of the convent area after the perpetrations. Another knife, without blood, was found in the area where 'Nelson' passed to get inside of the place, so that he could do the knife thing (DNA of the innocent and phased out man) and that was so that we, Twins of God, would know that for sure 'our' 'Nelson' had not stabbed the nun. We also know he did not mutilate her because the presenter from [91] says she was mutilated by knife. In this case, we imagine it was part of the satanic 'experience' (for us, it is just perpetration really) eating parts of her body, so that the negro figuring as negro used the knife while taking the flesh out. The frame of the bed was marked with the fingerprint of the innocent man because 'Nelson' also moved/puppeteered him to make him enter the convent on a day preceding the attack, so that the satanic brotherhood could impose the narrative: that he was looking for money there. They then made him go to 'her' bedroom and touch that frame. The negro figuring as negro would have stabbed her to death and should have raped her as well, taking into consideration what we know happened in the case involving Suzanne Armstrong. 'Nelson' however could have hit her body and made the rest of the damage the 'woman' (it is a satanic transgender) from [91] talks about. Perhaps he said he did that to impose narrative: that there was struggle, so to imply the negro figuring as negro was not perpetrating that amount of atrocities and applying that level of violence for no reason. It was all because the nun was fighting against him and his actions all the time.

Tadea Benz, [91] [91], speaker/presenter [91], framed person

Please observe the long squeezed face and facial folds in [91] to confirm that this ID is a satanic sisterhood experience (we observe that the satanic obviously would not go through the selection and training process of the nuns, so that the righteous owner of the ID - and we do believe that there was one also because the name does not follow the patterns of the weapons of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood-probably (99%) lost her precious and unique human existence sometime after she made the vows. That must be the case of all nuns everywhere, so that they once were very virtuous and altruistic women, as Christianity demands). This picture is different from the one we saw online and used before (yet we also concluded that body image was of a satanic transgender, therefore an imposter and very serious marginal), when we first studied this case (blog post and perhaps a paper, but then the satanic destroyed it). As said before, our entire Catholic college, in terms of nuns, was usurpation and that was 1980 already. The nun that spoke to us about it (after we recovered memories, so in 2020, we understood what she said) said that the reason for them to usurp was the facilities and all expenses paid. They helped nobody and did a horrible job administering the college and all of us, frequently letting negros figuring as negros, such as 'Monica Pereira', command and injure us. There were cleaners who were cannibals, friends with 'Lea Maria': they usurped accommodation through usurping ID from next door to the college, so that they could kidnap kids and eat them, when we assume those were replaced and so was their small family, that probably being the reason for the association with 'Lea Maria', like they eat the kid and 'Lea Maria' finishes with the family while 'Nelson' takes care of the replacements.

Johnny Frank Garret was murdered by the satanic brotherhood, who then usurped his ID, since that is a true native American white – thus Christian – name but the occupier appearing in the body image above is a negro satanic man (folds of the face and Al Qaeda eyes. Since the entire facial expression is satanic (mood, position of mouth and teeth, etc.), he is not an innocent victim, so that he also sinned highest before being put into this. Yet we don't really know if the image in the media corresponds to that of the man who walked out of that convent that time and day. The satanic brotherhood could have swapped him for another).

With the presenter, please notice that the neck has same width as the head and that only happens in the negro subrace, but 'she' also has Al Qaeda eyes, so that this is a satanic transgender that has started to stare at heavens instead of hells, since she is helping us.

'Nelson' would be selling this with 'Leinha' through the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood or Al Qaeda as an experience to the negro, so that they perpetrate and get away with it. We now imagine usurpers like 'Elon Musk' could also pay for those experiences (so negros who don't figure as negros), since they certainly would have no prejudice in terms of where the money comes from, like we are sure about that, since, even though they massacre over America and have all that discourse of hate for us, so our people, Country, subrace, spiritual choices and so on, they certainly steal gazillions of dollars per year from us. Yet, as for conversations we had with them, the experiences target the negro who figures as negro. We theorize those live mostly underground everywhere (we have now seen lots of YouTubes ([92], [93] and [94]) about plenty of underground facilities - in fact entire cities, with shopping centre and all) while they wait for the signal of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, the one that is going to tell them it is all over, so targets have been reached, which will then mean all other subraces are gone apart from their own, so apart from the negro subrace, when they will then emerge from their 'holes' and live over the earth, like the rest of us (not saying we actually live, just using Collective Unconscious (our definition) meaning).

We conclude that the money they get through usurpations - including the tons of money they steal from our nations per year through usurpations of governmental positions - is used not only to destroy our people, nation, culture, Country, land as well as other people's all-that, but also to pay for their experiences of perpetration, so that they can perpetrate and get away with all, basically then go through proven successful perpetration experiences each time. To the positive side, all the victims should be usurpers - therefore also negro males - just that they don't figure as negros or males (in this case) or that is what they want us to believe through the not-so-few criminal cases we have analyzed.

Nuns that are not Tadea Benz

Even though we asked three of the four AIs we have used to so far, so Co-pilot, Perplexity and Gemini, exactly the same question (we asked about the name of the American nun who would have been raped and stabbed to death in her convent), we got three different answers and those are seen below.

Copilot: 'Yes, one case that fits this description is the murder of Sister Roberta Elam in 1977. She was a 26-year-old nun in Wheeling, West Virginia, who was raped and strangled while praying near her convent. Another well-known case is Sister Catherine Cesnik, who was murdered in 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. Her death was linked to allegations of abuse at her school.'

We then get only 2 cases.

Perplexity:

1. Sister Margaret Ann Pahl

- Location: Toledo, Ohio
- Year: 1980
- Details: Sister Margaret Ann Pahl, a Catholic Sister of Mercy, was found strangled and stabbed to death in the chapel of the Toledo Mercy Hospital. She was found covered in an altar cloth with stab wounds in the shape of an inverted cross. While her murder involved stabbing, there is no public record indicating she was raped.

2. Sister Paula Merrill & Sister Margaret Held

- Location: Durant, Mississippi
- Year: 2016
- Details: Both nuns were found stabbed to death in their home. There is no public record indicating rape. Rodney Earl Sanders was convicted of their murders.

3. Unnamed Ursuline Sister

- Location: Cleveland, Ohio

- Year: Early 1990s
- Details: A nun was raped and murdered; her assailant, Pitcher, was convicted of rape, kidnapping, aggravated robbery, aggravated murder, and murder.
- 4. Sister Catherine Cesnik
 - Location: Baltimore, Maryland
 - Year: 1969
 - Details: Sister Catherine Cesnik was murdered, and her body was found in a wooded area. The case is widely believed to involve sexual assault, though the specifics are disputed and the case remains unsolved.
- 5. Unspecified Nun (Baltimore)
 - Location: Baltimore, Maryland
 - Year: 1993
 - Details: A nun was raped and strangled; the former convent handyman was tried for the crime.

Even though Perplexity gave us 6 different fatal victims of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood, we only got 4 names spelled out. Since giving their names and body images would be basic journalistic requirements if the journalist has formation, we know that at least the journalists involved in reporting those 2 cases of unnamed victims never had any formation, therefore are members of the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood (illegal migrants, assassins or partners of those, usurpers of ID and existence, thieves of property and so on). Yet we don't think body images are easily found for the others and we once more prove that the AIs are all managed by them, since at least Tadea Benz is not in the above list, which means bias and deceit when giving and/or retrieving information. To make sure we are all empowered to investigate things from now onward, please notice that common sense is what we, if we are Christians, would be doing if working in journalism. Isn't it true that all of us would think the basic things must be present when we deliver the news, so name of the victim, accused or suspected involved – with names and faces as well, if legal, address where the perpetration took place, so all involved, such as name of the location, suburb, street, town, Country, unless illegal, who is responsible for the investigations, facts that are known about the perpetration (including results of forensics) and history of the victim with possible links to the causes of the crimes highlighted, date, time, and weather of the location when the perpetration happened, witnesses and possible witnesses (then publishing their statements if possible with pictures and all, also full names), weapons used or technicalities involved in the crime (like level of skills required, also of possessions in technology items and weapons), possible connection to previous crimes, also in terms of search for patterns in terms of perpetration, what compliance has done so far, if there are survivors and how they escaped, to the least. In this case, as many would have noticed by now, we also don't have press or investigative journalism for long (once more, we really really need all that we asked to start doing heavens' work on earth and the Our God's Brainwashing is of fundamental importance in that process).

Gemini

- Sister Margaret Ann Pahl (Toledo, Ohio, 1980): Sister Margaret Ann Pahl, a Catholic Sister of Mercy, was found strangled and stabbed to death in the chapel of the Toledo Mercy Hospital. Her body was reportedly covered in an altar cloth with stab wounds in the shape of an inverted cross. While not explicitly stated as occurring "inside of the convent" in the exact search results, it happened within the grounds of a Catholic institution where nuns resided and worked. A priest, Gerald Robinson, was later convicted of her murder.
- Mother Superior Edna Mary Cardozo and Sister Marie Julien Fortin (Waterville, Maine, 1996): These two nuns were killed, and two others injured, in a stabbing and beating attack inside their convent at the Order of the Blessed Sacrament. The attacker, Mark Bechard, had a history of mental illness. The report does not mention rape in this specific incident.

Now the result was only 3 victims (half of the number of results we got from Perplexity) and only one of those had already been listed by Perplexity.

'1991 – Waddell, Arizona, US

An elderly Buddhist nun, Foy Sripanpasert, was one of nine people killed on August 9th, 1991, in the Wat Promkunaram temple. Their bodies were found the next day and included the abbot, priests, a novice monk, and a temple employee. In 1994, two teenagers — 17-year-old Jonathan Doody and 16-year-old Alessandro Garcia — were said to have gone to the temple to rob it. Garcia claimed Doody panicked, thinking he had been recognized, and shot all the victims in the head with a rifle. Both men were convicted in 1994 (Doody by a jury and Garcia via a plea deal). Doody's conviction was later overturned. A second trial, in 2013, resulted in mistrial. The third trial found Doody guilty on all counts (in 2014) and sentenced him to 281 years in prison.' The case above has not been listed by any of the AIs consulted and they all failed delivering an exhaustive list of cases, like we would expect to receive at least those that have appeared in the media as a result of the query, but that is not the satanic ways: that is the Christian ways instead.

We then noticed that about 10 cases have appeared in the media, yet the number would be way superior, as explained before: the media seems to be totally under their control. Once more, Australians calculated that about 820 people run the world, including in this figure those that run the media. If, approximately 2,625 years ago, the satanic brotherhood/sisterhood negros- when the first perpetration outside of Africa against whites was noticed - usurped all together, in a single day, at a load of 600,000 white Christian (were it nowadays, they would be Christians, just that that incarnation of theirs happened before Our Lord came in flesh around that year, year 0) individuals, these so meagre 820 can be usurped even in a fraction of a day.

13) Neil Armstrong

[85], March 11, 1966

[86], 1969

[87], NASA, 1958

The 3 pictures above represent very different men: if you compare jaws and ears, you will have to agree with us. They are all negros either because of the ears that protrude ([86] and [87]) or because of the folds on the skin ([85]). Yet we are sure that the 3 astronauts that made it to the moon were all righteous owners of American white – thus Christian - native IDs, since we checked on these men before (we actually think we did that both in a paper and on a blog post but the satanic then managed to hack and delete that part from the paper and, since we don't have memory most of the time, we didn't notice they had subtracted that part of the paper. We proved, through pictures, that those were originals, so not usurpers. We are then sure sure that at least [87] is a falsification. The righteous owners still gave one interview after arriving on earth (trip back), so that we theorize they were usurped for the first time soon after that live interview. We guessed and the satanic gave the memory ('Braganca'/the devil is then seen reporting exactly this): Our so valuable and Christian native American Neil Armstrong was so serious about what he did and the importance of all involved, including huge amount of investment of our nation (science, resources in general, people), that he prepared a statement for when they landed on the moon, which is the one we see below, like he thought that would be one of the most remarkable things ever for humanity and he did not want to disappoint us.

[88], before launch of Apollo 11, so in 1969

Somehow the satanic managed to falsify all the body images that were available for his ID online, this one included. This is again a negro, as can be told from close analysis of his lower lip fold (and, in special, how it protrudes in this particular picture), ears (the rim, internal shape and even position on the face) and facial fold (thick skin), yet there is also the eyes, which are a sort of hollow, the eyebrow (its angles) and others. Because this image should have been taken before the flight, we know it is a falsification. We may however lack the resources to prove it is such, since the satanic are always ahead, specially in terms of what is strategic for their crimes. After we have Our God's Brainwashing and do the basics to start advancing in wisdom levels in science and fix the past, we should be able to prove that these images are a falsification. It is also possible that something as simple as a printed newspaper that is guaranteed to be an original item can do the trick. Simple analysis of speech and comparison of patterns also prove he could never be our so valuable and eloquent American native white-thus Christian-men. Simple things such as the interval between one word and another and positions of start of that interval, like the negro doesn't finish the sentence to make the interval in speech, so that he goes 'I am' (break) 'good' instead of 'I am good' (break). That is probably because he is not a native but it is also that he is lying, so that the words literally don't come easy to him (the minimum thing is that he would have to first listen to whatever the satanic are telling him to say inside of his head, so that his expression would be tense most of the time or all the time, so that also comparisons of moods and facial expressions of the truly native American white-thus Christian-people with those of the negro should prove they are not such. Different subraces/peoples/cultures put emphasis on different words, have different patterns of occlusion and ways to deal with the lower lip area. They also present different facial deformation as they speak, on top of the distribution of lengths being different when it comes to items of the front of the head (space between nose and lips, amount of skull/flesh between eyes and line of hair, space between line of hair and eyebrow, etc.).

This one ALSO brings falsified images: the ears that protrude, the Nubian chin (only seen in their subrace, the little sort of squeezed but long chin, which ends on a long horizontal line segment. It is like part of a slice of wood, the end of it).

[89], pre-flight conference, 5th July 1969

Here we see the own members of the satanic brotherhood astonished and trying to help: the phoenix symbol should not have been there, like the righteous owners of American native white –thus Christian- IDs would never do such a thing, since that is scoffing at our nation, like it is a cartoon of some type appearing together with our most important people at that moment and a bird being associated with our achievements. That is a negro thing. We associate those with humanity instead. The satanic recorded this video and made those falsified pictures at the same time as we were doing those things, all having been pre-planned. Since we guessed, the satanic gave us the memory glimpse and there 'Braganca'/the devil lets us know that they couldn't have access to where the actual astronauts were for some reason back then²⁷, so that perhaps those around them were still righteous owners of American native white-thus Christian-IDs and their security scheme was really Christian, so 100% effective (if he managed to have access to them, they would probably have been murdered and replaced before the departure of the Apollo 11, which means the so scarce and precious resources of our nation would have been wasted on men without any basic formation or preparation for the mission, on top of those being people who actually hated humanity and earth. We here can picture them thinking to themselves that they became moon, their deity, upon arriving, though). He then says they made use of a room that was still inside of the complex but unoccupied for this recording, recording everything at the same time that the actual interview/communication was happening, so that they must have made the falsified images of their bodies also at the same time the other pictures were taken, we imagine, and therefore studies involving age of the images won't be enough to prove their falsification. We then see a negro man figuring as negro being portrayed as someone who could be serving the whites for real in something and going beyond his assigned duties to get things right, yet anyone observing and knowing how our (white native, thus Christian) people worked at that time would know this man, who appears fixing microphones or whatever, is highly incompetent and atypical. An American communication of this value would have been planned and prepared in a way that nobody would know who these hands were if watching the video, like the video would start with the men involved in the communication ready to speak.

Co-pilot: 'The United States first landed on the Moon on July 20, 1969 during the Apollo 11 mission. Astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin became the first humans to set foot on the lunar surface, while Michael Collins remained in orbit aboard the command module. Armstrong famously declared, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind," as he stepped onto the Moon.'

'take it' or something, not sure who, but I think it was a male. Probably 'Joao Carlos'. Nobody else moved, so 'Murillo' took me from his arms right before they make him walk (with their hands) and fall into the hole that they had dug for him there, where he would be burnt, not sure if alive or not. I know I got a sort of heart stroke, as explained before, and the satanic made me pass out via 666 after 'Murillo' took me. The cops I conversed with seem to say there is nothing on record about me being found in the trash bin there, like I would still be under my own name back then, just because we know the sexual abuse of 'Bradley Paul Neal' got registered in the police with both our names, so Elsie and Robert Dunnam, like we are sure about that one and who got that one for us was 'Lea Maria' and that included his arrest, when Leinha let him stay a time in jail, perhaps 2 years, before she 'rescued' him via new usurpation, this time the one of the valuable native American white, thus Christian, male who took care of incarceration troubles in the USA, Long Island, before she took his life (that was Bradley Paul Neal). I now remember certain conversation with Leinha, since we guessed, and there she says that they had to fear me, that I had to have to have some magical power (once more, she never mentioned it was me or anything like that, the logical thing), and that is when she decided to pass that narrative to me then. She also says I would feel too lonely (now I know it was about me) and, in this way, so with that female figure from inside of the NASA space, the confined one, being my friend, I would feel as if I belong, so that she was clearly saying all native American white, thus Christian, people would have been exterminated at this height.
